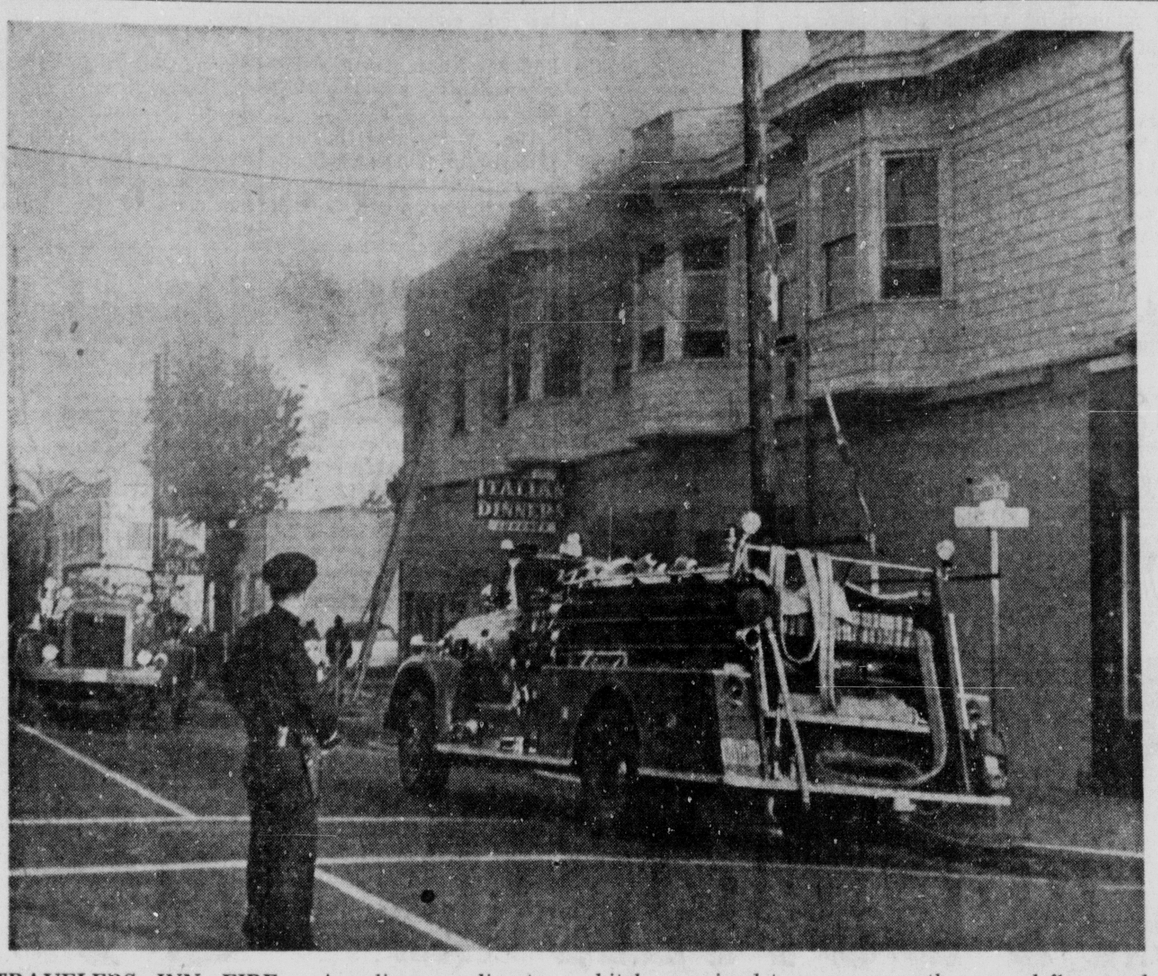
Flames Rout 20 Guests From San Rafael Hotel



TRAVELERS INN FIRE — A policeman diverts traffic at Third street and Tamalpais avenue, San Rafael, as smoke pours from the Travelers Inn this morning. Fire, believed to have started in the kitchen, ruined two rooms on the second floor and caused extensive smoke damage to the rest of the upper part of the hotel. (Kramer Herzog photo)

Travelers Inn Damage Estimated At $20,000

A blaze believed to have started in the kitchen today gutted two rooms at the Travelers Inn at 706 Third street, San Rafael, and sent about 20 hotel guests into the street before they could get dressed for breakfast.

Fire Chief Clarence M. Johansen said the fire started in the kitchen, but he did not know the cause. He said it spread upward to the second story, burning out two corner rooms, and ate through a double ceiling and roof in the old two-story frame structure.

Johansen estimated damage at about $20,000.

The fire was reported by San Rafael Police Officer Ray Bleasdale at 6:50 a.m.

Bleasdale said he noticed smoke pouring from the roof of the building as he and Officer Lee Ahern crossed Tamalpais avenue on patrol along Fourth street.

POUNDS ON DOORS

"I radioed in about the fire," he said, "and Ahern entered the hotel and started pounding on doors."

Michael Medefind, 19, a transient looking for work, said, "The banging on the door woke me up. I told him to go away, then I got up." Ahern was successful in getting all occupants to safety, and no injuries were reported.

Police Capt. Joseph Brusatori arrived and helped Martha Avila, dressed in pajamas, and her two daughters, 5 and 2, to a police car, and took out their clothing. Brusatori said the young mother had stayed overnight in the hotel preparatory to visiting friends in San Rafael, and planned to find another place to stay tonight.

OTHER DAMAGE

In addition to the charred rooms, there was considerable smoke and water damage.

Two pumpers and a ladder truck answered the call. The fire was quickly put out, and there appeared to be little excitement at the hotel. By 7:30 several customers were sipping beer at the bar on the first floor, but bartender Vic Scherini's business was not brisk.

H. O. Peters who has a room overlooking Tamalpais avenue, said he had been a resident of the hotel for 19 years. "I'd just shaved," he said, "and was getting ready to go for breakfast. I don't get excited about a fire. I've got my own fire escape."

Peters, rangemaster for the county firing range and a former railroad policeman, said he was prepared with the same escape system he used years ago 'in the old wooden hotel in Kansas."

COIL OF ROPE

"We had a coil of rope on the floor tied to a bedpost and could throw that out the window to get free," Peters said, and added, "but I didn't have to use the one in my room this morning."

Medefind said he was one of "about 10 teen-agers" staying at the hotel, and that there "were about 12 adults." Several persons who he identified as his "friends" had taken refuge in the Greyhound bus depot across the street.

Hotel personnel declined to give out the names of persons staying at the hotel, or those who were lodged in the two burned rooms. Johansen said he believed the hotel is owned by Carlo Caletti and his sister, Amelia, of San Rafael.

Kelly Spurns City Post To Take County Jailer Job

Frank Kelly, 58, former San Rafael police chief, will pass up a $500-per-month offer for a city administrative job and go to work Monday as a county jailer at $395 per month.

Sheriff Louis P. Mountanos announced today he is hiring Kelly on a temporary basis to serve on the 4 p.m. to midnight shift at the county jail booking desk under Chief Jailer Frank Christ. The job will be temporary until an eligibility list can be created for the job of jailer.

The sheriff hired Kelly and Edwin Koehn of 2000 Redwood Highway, San Rafael, as two additional jailers to provide supervision inside the jail cells instead of having trusties run the inner cells. The "trusty system" will operate at a minimum, the sheriff announced.

JOB REQUIREMENTS

Kelly's job at the sheriff's office will include checking in work-furlough inmates each evening and other bookings during the busy evening shift. He will also make the rounds inside the cells and supervise the mess hall.

Sheriff Mountanos said Kelly applied for the jailer's job Monday. The sheriff looked over the applicants and chose Kelly and Koehn as the best qualified.

Monday night, at the San Rafael City Hall, city councilmen voted 3 to 2 to hire Kelly as administrative assistant to City Manager Dan E. Andersen. The hiring followed stormy sessions with some backers of new Police Chief Charles J. Chiesa strongly opposed to having Kelly back in the city hall.

TOO MUCH PRESSURE

Kelly said today he decided he would take the lower paying job with the sheriff rather than work "under pressure" with the City of San Rafael.

"I appreciate what the city council did for me," Kelly declared. "But I agree I'm not an assistant city manager. If I took that job, they'd be on my back constantly. I don't think I could do the job under such pressure.

"The sheriff was kind enough to offer me the job. The pay is lower but I can get by and not be a public figure. I'm sick and tired of all this publicity."

Sausalito Favors New Parking Plan

An ambitious privately operated Sausalito off street parking plan, utilizing city-owned property along Bridgeway from the Bank of America building to the Shell Oil station, was given basic approval by the Sausalito City Council last night. City Atty. John B. Ehlen was instructed to prepare legal details.

The lot would accomodate about 450 cars and would charge 25 cents per day.

The property would be improved and the parking facility operated by Mark-A-Line, Inc., of Sausalito, the firm which does street painting for most of Marin's cities. It is operated by former Mayor Alan H. Scurfield and school trustee Robert E. Rogers.

Under terms of the tentative agreement, the operators would spend some $30,000 for paving the 123,000 square foot area, install 2,500 feet of wooden bumpers, supply and install automatic gates and operating equipment and landscape the area.

In return, the operators would retain the income from the operation until the investment is paid off, in addition to a reasonable return on their investment. The lot would then revert to the city.

The operators estimated an average year-around use of 80 cars daily, which City Manager Donald A. Duerr said would liquidate costs in about seven years.

Duerr emphasized to the council that no municipal funds would be involved in the im-

Hendrickson Free On Reduced Bail

San Rafael furnace manufacturer John R. Hendrickson, implicated in bank embezzlement, was free from jail today, after his bail was reduced to $50,000. He plans to go to Texas and fulfill a half-million-dollar Army housing contract.

U.S. Commissioner Joseph Karesh, who released the 40-year-old Hendrickson yesterday in San Francisco after cutting the original $100,000 bail, granted him permission to make the trip to El Paso, but cautioned him not to leave the United States.

Meanwhile, federal and state officials revealed further details of a gigantic embezzlement plot—which led to the suicide of a Long Beach banker—indicating nearly four million dollars might be involved.

NAMED RECIPIENT

U.S. Atty. Donald B. Constine, fighting at a hearing before Karesh yesterday to keep Hendrickson's bail at $100,000, said Hendrickson was named as the recipient of $3,714,710.96 in a suicide note left by George B. Hewlett, Long Beach bank executive who shot himself Saturday.

Hendrickson had been charged with conspiracy to embezzle $20,000. After his release he was ordered to appear "on notice" in Los Angeles after consideration of the case by a grand jury.

Constine told Karesh that investigators have found $1,765,856.91 in unauthorized checks paid to Hendrickson. He said Federal Bureau of Investigation agents found in Hewlett's garage 83 cashier's check totaling $927,000 which were made out to Hendrickson.

CHECKS HONORED

Constine added that five checks totaling $75,000 drawn by Hendrickson on Hewlett's bank were honored on Hewlett's approval, although bearing notations of insufficient funds.

An investigation was started after merger of the Long Beach National Bank, with the U.S. National Bank of San Diego. Hewlett, cashier of the Long Beach bank, was promoted to vice president in the merger.

When he was no longer able to conceal long-standing shortages, he took his own life, Constine said.

121 Claim Damage From Sonic Booms

One hundred twenty-one claims, totaling $9,034, have been filed against the Air Force so far for damage allegedly caused by sonic booms over the Bay Area April 6, 7 and 8, it was disclosed today by Anthony Carelli, claims examiner at Hamilton Air Force Base.

The number, however, represents only 20 per cent of the informal complaints received by the Air Force claims office, he added, many of which may yet result in formal damage filings.

A total of 520 informal complaints has been lodged with the office, Carelli said. Only about two dozen have come from Marin County.

The claims now on file range from a low of $2.50 to a high of $936, he said. About half of the complaints have been for glass breakage—"almost all of which probably will be honored."

Claims that the booms caused structural damage, however, "will be carefully scrutinized," he added, "and I doubt that more than 10 per cent of those claims will be honored. It has been proved by Air Force tests that there is little likelihood of structural damage from sonic booms."

GET MARRIED ON THE HOUSE, COUNTY SAYS

Monday the Crocker-Anglo National Bank in San Francisco notified the county clerk the $2 check was no good.

Assist. County Clerk Fred Trenam said legal action would cost more than the $2—so the couple received the license as a wedding present from Sonoma County.

Water Plan Includes N. Bay Aqueduct

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Gov. Edmund G. Brown's new one and three-quarter-billion-dollar compromise water proposal includes plans for construction of a North Bay Aqueduct to serve Solano, Napa, Sonoma and Marin Counties. (See story on page 17.)

The aqueduct would be part of an over-all system to transport water from the northern Sierra to the dry areas of the state.

Brown's request for the huge bond issue does not specify any appropriations or starting dates for the individual portions of the over-all state water project.

However, he said the full system would include the North Bay Aqueduct extending to a terminal reservoir in Marin County.

The aqueduct was authorized and funds for design and studies voted by the 1957 Legislature. Brown's water program this year did not call for any further appropriations for it.

A separate bill by Sen. John F. McCarthy (R-San Rafael) for nine million dollars for construction is now before the Legislature.

Cash For Trading Stamps Approved

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Customers could demand cash for trading stamps under a bill approved yesterday by the Senate Business and Professions Committee.

The measure by Sen. Luther E. Gibson (D-Vallejo) would require that stamps be marked with cash value and that companies redeem them with either cash or merchandise.

Council Passes Sandspit Lease In Sausalito

The Sausalito City Council by 3-2 vote last night passed a resolution approving a sublease between Madden and Lewis and Mac Marin, Inc., for construction of a restaurant and cocktail lounge plus a series of shops on a portion of the Sausalito sandspit.

The vote climaxed a long and sometimes bitter debate, with councilmen Marjorie Brady and Philip S. Ehrlich Jr. opposing the plan favored by Mayor Howard Sievers and Councilmen John E. Koenig Jr. and George Keeney.

By the same vote, the council had approved the plan "in principle" last month.

San Rafael attorney Joseph G. Wilson, representing a group of residents in opposition to the plan, pointed to a petition which he said was filed with City Clerk Amelie Smith earlier yesterday protesting the plan and demanding the issue be put to a vote of the people. There were names of 620 registered voters on the petition, Wilson claimed.

Airman Held For Forgery, Check Thefts

Airman Basic Bobby Joe Hood, 20, of the 666th Aircraft Control and Warning Squadron at Mt. Tamalpais, admitted yesterday he stole two government checks and forged signatures to get $192 from fellow airmen.

Sheriff's Inspector Guido Battaglia and a Secret Service agent from the U.S. Treasury Department arrested Hood at the Air Force station yesterday.

They got this admission from the airman: Last August, he opened the combination on Airman William M. Parker's mailbox at the Mt. Tam installation and took a $56 check. He bought two tires for his car at Fitz Richfield station at Alto and paid for them with the check, on which he forged Parker's name. He also endorsed the check with his own name. This led to his arrest.

Hood also admitted he stole a second check on Monday from the mailbox of fellow Airman David J. Sprong. It was for $136.90, made out to Sprong's wife, Barbara L. Sprong. He bought a $115 guitar at the Marin Music Co. in Mill Valley with that check.

Hood was in jail today on suspicion of two counts of forgery.

Bolinas Utility Victors Hinge On Nine Ballots

Nine absentee ballots yet to be counted will determnie the outcome of yesterday's election for three directors of the Bolinas Public Utility District.

There were six candidates.

High man in the voting was builder Lewis G. Pepper, with 62 votes. Following him, in order, were Sherman R. Smith, 61; Edward B. Page, 57; James D. Bourne, 56; Samuel H. Mostovoy, 49, and A. C. Pfefferkorn, 42.

With nine absentee ballots yet to be counted Mostovoy and Pfefferkorn would be the only candidates definitely out of the running.

Pepper, Smith and Page ran as a "slate" which has opposed the policies of the incumbent directors. Bourne has been chairman of the board and Mostovoy one of the directors. Director R. Warren McKinney did not seek re-election.

Dan Hadsell, attorney for the district, said today the absentee ballots may be counted as soon as they are all received, but in any case, must be tallied within seven days.

Board Secretary Carl Josephson was unavailable to determine whether the ballots had been received.

Hadsell also said he has advised the board that the successful candidates should draw lots for length of their terms, two to serve a four-year term, and one a two-year term.

Hadsell pointed out that the election has no bearing on the status of the Bolinas Sanitary District, whose five-man board includes the three incumbent utility directors. The other two sanitary directors are James Dougan and Jack Pepper, whose father was high man in the utility district election.

20 Tons Of Hay Burn On Truck

A 20-ton truckload of oat hay burned yesterday on remote Pt. Reyes Lighthouse road, ignited by a spark from the truck exhaust, according to the Marin County Fire Department.

Damage to the double trailer hauling the hay was estimated at $5,000 and the burned oat hay represented a loss of $800.

Driver Jesse (Bud) Adams of Inverness Park, employee of Toby Giacomini of Point Reyes Station, managed to detach the truck tractor in time to save it.

Two fire trucks from Point Reyes Station and another from Woodacre responded to the 11:29 a.m. alarm. But the hay was fully ablaze by the time the county trucks had traveled the 20-mile distance from Point Reyes Station.

Ascension Day Fete Slated

Ascension Day will be celebrated at Holy Innocents' Episcopal Church in Corte Madera tomorrow with Holy Communion at 6:30 a.m. and at 6:30 p.m. The evening service will be followed by a tamale pie supper in the parish hall, and the showing of a movie, "Christ in Blue Jeans."

Each family is asked to bring its own table service, including cups, for the supper. Mrs. John Vance, Mrs. Harriet Beckwith, Mrs. John Moffitt and Mrs. Tod Ewald are in charge.

Corte Madera Building Boom Still Continues

Corte Madera construction continued to boom last month, with $520,868 in building permits representing the third highest total in the town's history.

William G. McBride, town building inspector, said the figure was exceeded only in March, 1959, when the valuation of permits was $3,327,043, and last March, when the total was $726,395.

The record month last year reflected a spurt of applications which preceded adoption of a new town zoning ordinance.

"Last month," McBride said, "we did better than San Rafael and ended up on a par with communities like Santa Rosa and Napa. Corte Madera is experiencing a tremendously fast rate of growth."

The April total included $515,318 for 30 new one-family homes, 27 of them in Mariner's Cove subdivision east of Highway 101.

2 Pigeons Tie In Redding-Marin Race

Two pigeons in two separate events of the Tamalpais Homing Pigeon Club tied in an 180-mile air race from Redding to Marin County by flying an average 55-miles-an-hour speed Sunday, reported Del Krelle of San Anselmo, club secretary.

In the club division, a pigeon of Robert Brockman of Mill Valley flew the route in 3 hours, 19 minutes.

Drake Market To Celebrate Eighth Year

The Drake Market in San Anselmo will celebrate its eighth anniversary beginning tomorrow. The market at 820 Sir Francis Drake boulevard will be decorated on a circus theme for the three-day anniversary observance.

Homer Rickards, 44-year-old owner of the market, has been in the San Anselmo grocery business since 1935, when he was made manager of the San Anselmo Safeway store. Two years later he opened a new Safeway in what is now the Purity store on Drake boulevard.

From 1946 to 1951, Rickards and his brother, Carl, operated the grocery department of the Home Market in San Anselmo.

In May, 1951, they opened the Drake Market. The brothers were co-owners until the first of this year, when Homer bought out Carl's interest. Carl, who is 38, now is devoting more time to his varied real estate interests.

2 More Buildings Near Finish At Shop Center

Two more buildings, a half million dollars worth, are just about completed at the Montecito Shopping Center in San Rafael to house a series of shops and possibly a major department store.

The two buildings are located on Third street, east of the Purity Store, across the street from the high school campus. Each building occupies 17,000 square feet of land area. The two are estimated to be worth $500,000.

One building, immediately adjacent to Purity, will house the following: Jack Horn liquor store, Goodman Builders Supply and Hardware, a cleaning firm, and possibly a chain shoe store.

David G. Cohn, one of the partners in Montecito Properties, said two utility companies are interested in the second floor. The building will be ready for use about June 1.

The other large structure, with a dome roof, is still under lease negotiation. At least two large companies are interested in renting the huge building. Cohn said there is a possibility that one firm may rent the entire building, or it could be shared by two.

Between the two structures is a mall where a smaller building will accommodate Tony's Barber Shop, now located in Tiburon, a shoe repair shop and a hairdresser.

Three other major buildings are on the drawing boards for future construction to complete the shopping center, which already has a bank, a service station and Purity Store. One building will go up between Crocker-Anglo Bank and United Markets. The other two will go up at the eastern end of the shopping center.

Long-Established Sausalito Tavern Changes Hands

One of Sausalito's "veteran" taverns, Herb's Club at 757 Bridgeway, has changed hands and is in the process of being refurbished preparatory to reopening about June 1, according to Herbert W. Beckman, one of the buyers.

The place has been operated continuously by Herbert Todt since the advent of repeal in 1933. Todt has sold it to a corporation named Poseidonia, Inc., which consists of James Greenan, Patricia Castle, John Hamilton, William H. Ryan and Beckman.

Greenan and Hamilton, both well known in Sausalito, will be the operators, Beckman said.

Todt, who has been in ill health, has made no definite plans for the future.

When street lights were first installed in Lark, Utah, civic-minded residents arranged the poles so that they spelled out the name of the town in letters large enough to be read from tall buildings in Salt Lake City, 27 miles away.

ed that three persons who were staying at the hotel are welfare cases. She said two were referred by the probation department and one was a jail referral. She said it was against policy to disclose their names.

Walter J. Busher, county probation officer, said one of the probation cases was a man unable to find work after release from a veterans hospital. The other, he said, was a destitute man who gas getting aid until "he can get on his feet."

San Rafael police said that to their knowledge there were no persons under 18, other than the two children, registered at the hotel. A city ordinance requires hotel keepers to report all such registrants to the police department.

It was apparent to police that some of the youths routed from rooms were "guests" of other youths, and had been given a place to stay for the night by "buddies."

One official advanced the theory that any youth who had a job supported the others.

In the general election in Denmark in 1857, the Communists polled only 72,312 votes opposed to a vote case of 2,137,545 for all opposition parties.

cil's action of April 7 in this matter is not subject to a referendum," City Atty. John B. Ehlen declared.

Attorney Wilson also questioned Koenig's eligibility to vote, claiming a possible conflict of interest in connection with his insurance business with Madden and Lewis. The question had been raised previously in a letter to the council signed by 12 residents.

Koenig declared: "The intent of the regulation (conflict of interest) is to prevent an official from taking advantage of his position for personal financial benefit." He said his income from the sandspit property was negligible.

"If the writers wish to pursue the matter further, that is their privilege," he declared.

But the matter was not over. In response to a council question, Ehlen said that "if proper legal authority" declares Koenig's vote to be a matter subject to a referendum, "and if the petition contains at least 10 per cent of the city's registered voters, then the council is stopped cold."

San Rafael's 2nd High School Gets Principal

Webster D. Wilson, 38, director of instruction at San Rafael High School, was named last night as principal of the new high school south of Terra Linda, as bids were opened for the $1,250,000 plant.

Ray I. Johnson of Kentfield submitted the lowest base bid of $1,180,000 in tight bidding among a dozen contractors. Johnson's total bid, including alternates for a music room, covered walkways, and an electric panel in the science wing, comes to $1,249,000.

Award of the contract was postponed until the San Rafael Board of Education's next meeting on Tuesday night. The new high school is expected to be up by September of 1960.

The base bids by the dozen firms ranged from Johnson's low of $1,180,000 to Duncan-Harrelson's $1,299,000.

Wilson, the new principal, came to San Rafael last year from John Swett High School in Crockett, where he was vice principal and dean of boys. Before that, he was English teacher and counselor at Acalanes High School in Lafayette for about seven years.

He attended California Institute of Technology in Pasadena, and received his bachelor's and master's degree from University of California.

Wilson was director of San Rafael's summer school last year and may handle the same chore this summer. His present salary is $9,250 per year. The new salary as principal has not been set as yet.

During World War II and the Korean War, Wilson was in the Navy, serving in Okinawa and in Shanghai on battle repair ships. He is still in the Navy reserve with rank of lieutenant commander.

He and his wife and three children live at 701 Appleberry drive, Marinwood. He has a walnut ranch at Clear Lake

John S. Cassidy of San Francisco will be the inspector for the new high school, and Abbot Hanks of San Francisco, the testing laboratory.

Going To Buffalo

Bates McIndoe, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. McIndoe, 44 Santa Rosa avenue, Sausalito, will be sent to Buffalo, N.Y., late this summer by the American Radiator and Standard Sanitary Corp., for a 10-week course in heating and air conditioning.

for the annual Sausalito Outdoor Art Festival last night, asked for the use of the space adjacent to the bank building for this year's event, set for July 18-19. The Festival drew thousands of spectators last year.

Councilmen indicated their concern over loss of the space and made several suggestions for alternate locations for the art festival, including Central School. Duerr was instructed to confer with Malcheski in locating a suitable substitute location.

Gunmen Kidnap Bank Manager Get $70,000

ONTARIO (AP)—Two gunmen kidnaped a bank manager and his wife today and robbed the Bank of America of an estimated $60,000 to $70,000, police said.

Police Lt. John Joines said the bank manager, Frank Colella and his wife were seized in their home and taken to the bank at 4th and Mountain streets before the opening hour.

The robbers looted the bank and fled, leaving Mr. and Mrs. Colella unharmed.

Colella told police that the two robbers came to his home last night and one introduced himself as "Sergeant Murphy of the police." Colella said when he let the men in, they drew pistols and told him they were going to rob the bank.

Colella said the men forced him and his wife into the car and made them drive around all night.

Shortly before 9 a.m., Colella said, he drove to the bank and opened it.

The gunmen waited until a time lock opened the vault, scooped up the money and drove off in Colella's car.

The car was found abandoned a few blocks away.

Colella said both men were white and both were about 6 feet tall. He said one was about 42 years old, the other about 30.

Sewer Directors Approve Annex Of Paradise Cay

Directors of Corte Madera Sanitary District last night gave preliminary approval to an agreement for annexation of Pullman Construction Co.'s Paradise Cay subdivision on Tiburon Peninsula.

A public hearing on the proposal will be held before final action is taken, president Harold A. Snyder said today.

Annexation of the as yet undeveloped subdivision would add some 200 lots to the district, which would maintain the tract's sewerage facilities.

The Tiburon Peninsula Sanitary Study Committee last month condemned the proposal on the ground that annexation to Richardson Bay Sanitary District, which has a new treatment plan, made "much better economic sense."

The study group also noted that the Corte Madera district lacks its own treatment plant.

OBITUARIES

James N. Witherell Dies At 52

James Nelson Witherell of San Rafael, a retired officer in the Navy Supply Corps, died yesterday at Oak Knoll Naval Hospital in Oakland after surgery for cancer. He was 52.

He was a feild representative for the California State Automobile Assn. until his final illness. But much of his life had been tied to the armed services.

Born in Oakland, Me., he lived in most parts of the country as the son of an Army doctor. He attended Army-Navy Preparatory School in Baltimore, Md., and was graduated from Johns Hopkins University. He served as commander of the ROTC there and was commissioned in the Army upon graduation in 1932.

MARRIED IN 1933

He was married in 1933 in York, Pa., to Margaret Noecker. He went to work for the city of Portland, Me., and later for the General Motors Acceptance Corp. in Maine. In 1937 he transferred from the Army to the active Navy reserve. In January, 1940, he went on active duty at Bangor, Me., to begin a distinguished Navy career that ended with his retirement in 1953.

He served much of World War II in the Pacific. While he was at sea, his family moved to Belvedere and lived on Bayview avenue there. He served at Guadalcanal and on the tanker USS Monongahela as supply officer. He returned to San Diego for a period, then became commanding officer of the supply depot at Saipan, later went to Davisville, R. I., as commanding officer of the yards and docks supply depot there. In 1950 he was sent to the Armed Forces Staff College in Norfolk, Va.

ABOARD MISSOURI

During the Korean War he served as supply officer aboard the battleship Missouri. He received the Bronze Star for service in Korea. He left the ship in Guantanamo, Cuba, in 1951 after a heart attack. He returned to active duty at Key West, Fla., as staff supply officer and naval station supply officer, and suffered a second heart attack there in August, 1952. He was retired from the Navy in July, 1953.

The family returned to Marin, living first at San Anselmo, then moving to the present family home at 20 Rosewood court, San Rafael.

He is survived by his wife, Margaret, an employee of the Marin County Welfare Department; his mother, Mrs. Bertha Witherell, who lives at the San Rafael home; two duaghters, Mrs. Joseph Coffrini of San Anselmo and Mrs. Wyllis Young Jr. of San Rafael; a son, James N. Witherell, a student at San Jose State College, and three grandchildren.

Requiem Mass will be offered at St. Raphael's Church in San Rafael at 10 a.m. Friday. The Rosary will be recited at 8 p.m. tomorrow at Keaton's Mortuary in San Rafael. Burial is planned for Golden Gate Cemetery, San Bruno.

The family has requested that memorials be in the form of contributions to the American Cancer Society.

Fageros Advances In Italian Tournament

ROME (AP)—Karol Fageros of Miami defeated Ulla Hulcrantz of Sweden Tuesday 6-1, 6-3, and advanced to the third round of the Italian National Tennis Tournament.

Airmen's Bodies Sent To Homes

Bodies of the Hamilton Air Force Base airmen, killed Sunday night when a car plunged down a bank off Highway 101 in San Rafael, have been shipped to their homes for funeral services and burial.

Victims of the crash were Airman Cecil O. Rentfrow of Santa Paula and Airman Michael John Scribner of El Cajon, both 21.

Rites Slated For Former Novatan

Funeral services will be held tomorrow for Fred Toelke, 71, a retired rancher and 20-year resident of Novato.

He died unexpectedly Sunday at his home in San Francisco, where he moved last summer. He had lived at 675 McClay road in Novato and was a member of Grace Lutheran Church, Novato.

Rev. Arthur Koehler of Grace Lutheran Church will read the funeral service at 11 a.m. tomorrow at the Harry M. Williams Mortuary in San Rafael. Burial will be in Mt. Tamalpais Cemetery.

Directors of Marin County Hospital District last night "clarified" their stand on Marin General Hospital rates to be charged Novato area residents if they vote to secede from the district May 26.

With two members absent, the board decided that if secession is voted, the rate for Novato residents will be the same charged those living in the district "until such time as added indebtedness is incurred by the district."

The board drew charges of "politics" from secessionist leaders last week when it adopted a policy statement saying it would establish "a new rate . . . that will apply to residents of the excluded area" which would "in no event be higher than the then prevailing rate for non-residents of Marin County."

At last night's special meeting, the three directors approved the wording of a "clarifying" letter to be distributed to eligible voters of the Novato area.

The letter says the board recognizes that " a misunderstanding may exist" about a differential rate.

The board again noted that, according to legal advice, Novato secession automatically would place the area in the non-resident classification.

But, says the letter:

"Until such time as added indebtedness is incurred by the district, the rate for the Novato area will be the same as for those residing in the hospital district. If and when added indebtedness is incurred, a fair study of your area will be made."

This statement met the approval of at least one Novato secession leader, Dr. Joseph Sereda.

"I think this is very fair, and I don't believe anyone can complain about the stand they are taking now," Dr. Sereda told the Independent-Journal today.

WITH LEVITY

Dog Problem Pops Up Again In Sausalito

The ever-present problem of unleashed dogs, with the accompanying battle between dog lovers and dog haters, burst on an already tumultuous Sausalito City Council meeting last night.

A letter from A. G. Malone of 308 Second street, complaining that unleashed dogs were ruining his property, was read to the council.

City Manager Donald A. Duerr explained the city has a leash law which applies only to the downtown area.

Said Councilman John E. Koenig Jr.: "The sandspit ruckus would look like a tea party compared to what would happen if we started talking about dog control."

Unidentified spectator: "The trouble is the dogs can't read and don't know when they're getting into the business section."

Fred G. Turner, 144 Prospect avenue: "The dogs have organized a gang in our area and steal things."

Hilary A. Belloc of De Silva Island: "The solution to this problem is to organize a dog haters' league."

Conclusion: Have City Manager Duerr "confer" with the proper authorities and offending pet owners in an effort to curb the annoying pooches.

The council also:

1. Approved a six-month extension of the interim zoning ordinance.
2. Adopted an ordinance permitting the police department to sell unclaimed property after it is held for six months.
3. Granted an encroachment permit to Sam Zakessian for construction of berths near his waterside restaurant at the foot of Turney street, provided he also removes accumulated debris from his property.
4. Approved 4-0, Councilman George E. Kenney abstaining, inclusion of Rodeo avenue east of the highway and Humboldt street between Anchor and Bay streets among major streets eligible for gasoline tax funds. Prospect avenue between Spencer and Highway 101 was deleted from the list. Kenney has asked that Cazneau avenue be added.
5. Set Monday, May 18, as the date for the next meeting. The council chamber will be used as a school election polling place May 19, normally the next meeting date.
6. Approved payment of warrants totaling $16,314.03.

NO PLACE FOR COLUMNIST TO HIDE THERE

COLUMBUS, Ohio (UPI) — Ohio Penitentiary newspaper columnist Herb Cheatham predicted the Indians will clobber the Yankees for the American League pennant. He added:

"It is hoped the Cleveland club doesn't let this writer down after going this far out on a limb. There ain't no place here to hide."

Shop Center Access Plan Due Hearing

Direct Highway 101 access for a 45-acre South Novato shopping center proposed by developers Rudy and Boyd Lang of San Rafael is scheduled for a May 26 hearing.

The public hearing was scheduled by the county board of supervisors yesterday.

The Langs announced in mid-March that grading on the shopping center site between Highway 101 and South Novato boulevard would begin as soon as the board of supervisors amends the county master road plan to provide a Highway 101 access.

Although no leases had been signed, the Langs said the first phase of the shopping center would include stores of W. T. Grant Co., United Markets, Thrifty Drugs and F. W. Woolworth Co.

Constine said the investigation was made public prematurely by Hewlett's suicide. Hewlett had been summoned to a conference at the bank but didn't show up.

At the hearing, Hendrickson, who lives at 27 Dellwood court in Glenwood with his wife and seven children, testified that he managed the Tampco Heating and Air Conditioning firm in Sebastopol with 45 employees, and the Regal Heating Co. of Los Angeles with 55 employees. He said he was anxious to go to Texas where he had a contract to supply water heaters for an Army housing project at Ft. Bliss.

He told reporters his firms made money. When asked why Hewlett gave him so much money, he answered, "No comment."

Hendrickson had been a plumber in Long Beach as recently as 1954.

Last year Hewlett and Hendrickson reportedly took a vacation trip together in Mexico. But further than that no one knows the connection between the two men. State and federal authorities have offered no explanation.

The bank, meanwhile, is suing Hendrickson to protect its financial interest. His $69,500 home has been attached, as have his companies. Named defendants, besides Hendrickson, in the $490,000 civil attachment suit, filed in Los Angeles Superior Court, are his wife, Virginia, several unknown partnerships, individuals and corporations, and five companies, Royal Heating Co. of El Paso, Temperature Appliance Co. of Sebastopol, Barnes Heating Co. of Long Beach, Norwalk Heating Co. of Norwalk and Quality Home and Heating Co., no address listed.

C. Hugh Friedman, an attorney for the bank, attempted to question Hendrickson at Karesh's office, but on the advice of his attorney, James E. (Ned) Burns, Hendrickson would only give his name and address and the name of his wife.

MARIN FIRE CALLS

War I Veterans Organize Here

Henry A. Gareis of Larkspur is the commander of the newly organized Marin Barracks 550, Veterans of World War I, in San Rafael.

His staff includes Roy G. Partridge of Larkspur, senior vice commander; John P. O'Brien of Mill Valley, junior vice commander; Joseph S. Walker of San Anselmo, chaplain; Alvin C. Pfefferkorn of Bolinas, quartermaster-adjutant, and John O. Rogers of Novato, judge advocate.

The organization, which meets at 8 p.m. every third Thursday in the month in Painters Union Hall, San Rafael, will establish an auxiliary soon, Gareis said.

Tenants Council Chairman Resigns

The Marin City Tenants Council has accepted the resignation of Hardy Westmore as chairman and council member. Westmore gave press of private business as the reason.

At the June 1 council meeting, nominations will be received for council seats to be filled at the July election.

In addition to Westmore, the incumbents are Mrs. Moses Beard, Frank Phillips and Mrs. Rose Sweeney. There are also seats formerly occupied by Max Beagarie and Bruce Risley to be voted on.

THREE OF A KIND

Duke of Kent, center, and two unidentified fellow officers are lookalikes as they arrive at London airport to emplane for Dusseldorf, West Germany, to rejoin their military unit after weekend leave in England. Eddie To Wed Liz Tuesday

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Eddie Fisher says he and Elizabeth Taylor will marry in Las Vegas, Nev., next Tuesday with Michael Todd Jr. serving as best man.

Fisher said the two had planned to marry the 14th.

"I don't finish here until the 12th," the singer said in a phone call from the desert resort. "And of course we would never be married on the 13th. So we had planned to get married the 14th. But Michael cabled us that he has to be back in Spain by the 14th."

Todd Jr. is the son of the actress' late husband.

Mrs. Howard Taylor, who is married to Miss Taylor's brother, will stand up for her sister-in-law. The brother and his wife live in La Jolla.

Fisher said there would be two ceremonies—a civil and a Jewish rite. The latter will be performed by Rabbi Max Nussbaum, who recently converted Miss Taylor to Judaism, the same faith as Fisher.

The actress said that both rites would be private, with only the families and a few close friends present. She added that there would be no press or photo coverage.

J. HAROLD GRADY

Measles Still High In County

No let-up in the incidence of measles appears in the weekly report of Dr. Carolyn B. Albrecht, county health officer, released today.

Last week, 34 new cases of measles were reported to Dr. Albrecht's office. Fifteen of them were in San Anselmo, 11 in Fairfax, two each in Mill Valley, Corte Madera and Novato, and one each in Tiburon and San Rafael.

Many cases are not reported to the county health department, Dr. Albrecht noted.

Demo Outpolls GOP Mayor In Baltimore

BALTIMORE (AP) — Democrat J. Harold Grady offered a modest explanation today for his rocketing from political obscurity to mayor of Baltimore in a few short months.

"You can't attribute this to any political organization," he said after last night's thumping victory over Republican Theodore R. McKeldin, former mayor and governor of Maryland.

"It just showed the people are turning away the old faces," Grady said.

. McKeldin is the second old face turned away by Baltimoreans in favor of Grady this year. The 42-year-old lawyer and former Federal Bureau of Investigation agent, elected to a four-year term as state's attorney only last November, defeated three-time Mayor D'Alesandro in the March 3 Democratic primary.

Until then Grady's only political experience had been as an unopposed 1958 candidate for the prosecutor's job to which he had been appointed a short time earlier. His predecessor had been named to a judgeship in mid-term, and the professional politicians decided to give the young, ruggedly handsome Grady a free ride.

Steel Firms Consider Mutual Aid In Strike

NEW YORK (UPI)—R. Conrad Cooper, chief negotiator for the steel industry, said the companies are studying a mutual assistance program in the event the United Steelworkers Union should strike only part of the industry this year.

The plan being studied by the steel industry is similar to that used by airlines during a walkout against Eastern Air Lines several months ago. At that time the airlines which operated made a percentage of their increased revenues available to the lines affected by strikes.

"Frankly, we have had some people looking into this area but we have come to no conclusions," Cooper told a news conference.

There has been speculation that if a nationwide strike is called after the current three-year agreement expires at midnight June 30, President Eisenhower might invoke the 80-day cooling off period under the Taft-Hartley Act.

The union could avoid a national emergency by striking only a segment of the industry.

If the union adopts divide and conquer tactic, those steel companies which continue to operate could contribute to a general pool which would aid the companies affected by a strike.

David J. McDonald, president of the steelworkers, told the same press conference that his union is not "strike happy" and is working diligently to accomplish an agreement prior to the strike deadline.

McDonald said the union presented to the individual companies in general terms a program for shorter hours of work designed to reduce unemployment in the industry.

He said we like to call this program "pre-retirement training." McDonald said earlier that industry charges that rising wages were pricing U.S. steel products out of the world markets, were "entirely without merit or foundation."

WIRE NEWS BRIEFS From Everywhere

$300 Weekly — At 20

LOS ANGELES (AP) — "Are you satisfied with this salary?" the judge asked.

The judge then approved a seven-year Warner Bros. contract which starts the pretty blonde at $300 a week and will pay her $1,250 weekly in seven years if all options are exercised.

Elvis Signs For TV

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Elvis Presley will start a once-a-year series of television spectaculars for ABC next spring, when the rock 'n' roll singer gets out of the Army.

Presley's manager, Col. Tom Parker, announced signing of the agreement yesterday. Terms and length of the contract were not disclosed.

Heart Girl Recovers

NEW YORK (AP)—Mabel Chin, the 5-year-old girl who underwent major heart surgery on television exactly a year ago, can play as much as she wants to now.

A recent physical checkup found her in perfect health.

Rocket Job Awarded

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government today hired General Dynamics Corp. to supervise construction of powerful Vega space rockets to be used in explorations of the moon and the planets.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration announced the award of a 33½-million-dollar contract to General Dynamics' Convair Division for the design, constructing, tests and launching. Convair is to build eight of the Vegas by the end of 1961.

Jordan Seeks Cabinet

King Hussein named Majali to succeed Premier Samir Rifai, the last pro-Western strong man in the Arab world who resigned yesterday pleading ill health.

The change aroused some speculation that Hussein might be getting ready to patch up differences with President Gamal Abdel Nasser of the United Arab Republic. But Cairo's government-controlled newspapers attacked the appointment, with Al Gumhurriya saying it only meant substitution of an "agent of British policy" for an agent of American policy.

Algeria Grows Tenser

CONSTANTINE, Algeria (AP) — Strong military and police patrols kept an eye today on this tense east Algerian city where new terrorist attacks have brought swelling resentment against President Charles de Gaulle.

After two days of demonstrations against the president's attempts to negotiate a peace with the nationalist rebels, a delegation of French Algerian youths called last night on Gen. Eugene Jannot, military commander of the region, to demand harsher punishment for convicted terrorists.

Gift For Indonesia

STOCKHOLM, Sweden (UPI)—The Swedish government said today it had ordered a heart-lung machine as a gift to Indonesian President Sukarno who just completed a three-day visit to Sweden.

The machine, which will be stationed at the University of Jakarta in Indonesia's capital, is designed for complicated heart operations when the organ must be emptied of blood and brought to a standstill.

Wind Damages Town

MANAWA, Wis. (AP)—A windstorm struck in the town of Bear Creek, a few miles northeast of here, before dawn today, causing widespread property damage and trapping a number of animals in flattened shelters.

Sheriff Ray Abrahamson said there were no deaths or personal injuries reported. He said there was no doubt the storm was a tornado.

The storm struck at 4:20 a.m. and rattled around in a five-square mile area of sparsely settled east-central Wisconsin about 50 miles west of Green Bay.

Union Merger Hinted

NEW YORK (AP)—The Bakery and Confectionery Workers International Union may merge with the Teamsters Union headed by James R. Hoffa, it was reported today.

The possibility was aired in a Washington dispatch to the New York Times, which quoted Hoffa as saying merger talks were far advanced.

This union, like the Teamsters, was expelled from the AFL-CIO on charges of corruption. The AFL-CIO subsequently set up its own such organization, the American Bakery and Confectionery Workers Union.

Secrecy Veils Lynch Case

POPLARVILLE, Miss. (AP)—A mantle of secrecy hung over the Mack Charles Parker case today as officers continued to look for clues that might lead to the lynch mob that shot the 23-year-old Negro truck driver to death.

A six-man coroner's jury ruled yesterday that two bullet wounds killed Parker. He was awaiting trial on a charge of raping a white woman. A band of eight or 10 masked men kidnaped him from an unguarded jail here April 25.

No bullets were in the body when a Federal Bureau of Investigations agent and a highway patrolman pulled it from the Pearl River near Bogalusa, La., Monday. But FBI Agent Joseph Myers told the jury there were two holes in the body, one in the side and the other near the breastbone.

Two hours after the inquest about 100 Negroes attended funeral services for Parker in a cemetery about one mile from his home outside Lumberton.

County's Building Tops $1 Million

Building permits for more than one million dollars of new construction were issued during the last two weeks of April by the Marin County building inspector.

New construction in unincorporated Marin County totaled $1,038,652 on the permits issued.

Included in the new construction were 54 dwellings, eight swimming pools and a $20,400 addition to Motel Alto.

Permits for new subdivision dwellings were issued for West ridge and Millwood Terrace in Novato, Terra Linda, Loma Verde and Rancho Village.

At Shade Tree Parley

Mrs. Alice E. Sohner, president; John C. Phillips, vice president and general manager and Grove M. Reed, superintendent of Sohner Tree Service, Inc., in San Anselmo are attending a meeting of the Western Chapter, National Shade Tree Conference, in San Francisco's Golden Gate Park. The parley ends Friday.

PANTOMIMIST—Tami Evans, 18-year-old candidate for Miss Marin, is a model for Modern Eve Shop of San Rafael and lists pantomime as her talent. Tami, 5-foot 9, with measurements of 36-23-38, was graduated last year from Tamalpais High School. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Evans of 126 Marion avenue, Mill Valley. Miss Marin pageant is to be presented May 16 at Bermuda Palms by San Rafael Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Planners Give Nod For Work At Camp Site

Marin county's planning commissioners sanctioned improvements in the recently approved 114-acre summer camp site near Nicasio Monday and endorsed plans for an addition to the Richardson Bay Kennels in Mill Valley.

In approving the application for remodeling and constructing various camp buildings, the commission made minor changes in original architectural proposals.

The planners specified that the swimming pool shall be at least 20 feet from the side of the property line, that the main entrance location be established by the Board of Public Works and that any gate at either the main or service entrance be 25 feet from the highway traffic lanes and open into the property.

The approved addition to the Richardson Bay Kennels will be a separate building containing 16 kennels and runs. The Mill Valley property is at 230 Shoreline highway.

Continued to the commission's May 18 meeting were applications for construction of a bowling alley on the east side of U.S. Highway 101 adjacent to and north of Hamilton Field, and of a use permit to establish a cover-and-fill garbage dump on a five-acre site on Rancho Palomarin four miles south of Olema. The site is adjacent to the Golden Rule saw mill.

Long Discussion On Marinwood Plan

Proposed amendments to the Marinwood master plan were discussed for nearly five hours Monday night by the Marin County Planning Commission, but no action was taken.

Discussion centered around the proposed Marinwood recreational area. The board said that only written protests will be considered at its next meeting.

NIKITA FORECASTS NO BERLIN TROUBLE

But Repeats Vow Soviet Would Sign Separate Treaty With E. Germany

FRANKFURT, Germany (AP) — Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev says there won't be any trouble in Berlin, whatever length and course forthcoming international talks may take.

He made the remarks to a group of visiting West German Socialist editors in Moscow. The interview was carried in several German and Austrian newspapers today.

Khrushchev reiterated, however, that if no agreement on a German peace treaty were reached, the Soviet Union would go ahead and sign a separate one with East Germany.

Then, said Khrushchev, the Allied occupation of West Berlin would come to an end, and control over Western access route to Berlin must be exercised by East Germans.

CAUSE OF CRISIS

It was Khrushchev's warning that the Soviets would cede control rights over Allied communications with Berlin that brought on the German crisis and led to the calling of an East-West foreign ministers conference in Geneva to start next Monday.

Khrushchev said the problem of a European security system should not be linked with a peace treaty for Germany. This was an apparent rejection of a package plan for settling European problems that the West has ready to present at Geneva.

He said that a German peace treaty was the top issue for the present.

TROOP WITHDRAWALS

He said the Soviet Union was agreeable to the withdrawal of all foreign troops from East and West Germany. And, if the NATO members withdrew their forces behind the boundaries of their own countries, then said Khrushchev, the Soviet Union would withdraw its forces from Hungary and Poland.

Finally, the Soviet leader told the editors that the German question was a problem of war or peace.

Radiation From Tests Centers In Middle U. S.

WASHINGTON (UPI) — New evidence before Congress indicates the United States may have more to fear than any other major country from radioactive fallout produced by nuclear explosions.

Fallout, mainly from Soviet nuclear tests, promises within a few months to double the amount of radio-active strontium 90 in a belt centered on 40 degrees north latitude, which passes through the middle of the United States.

FOUR-DAY HEARING

The evidence was placed before the Joint Congressional Subcommittee on Radiation by the Atomic Energy Commission yesterday during the first of four days of hearing on the fallout problem. The information was accompanied by charts showing that:

1. In 1957-58 radioactivity from Russian tests for the first time exceeded the combined total for the United States and Britain.

2. The rate of testing by all nations during the two years exceeded by 75 per cent the annual maximum recommended to the subcommittee by a panel of scientists in 1957.

MOVE IN NORTH

3. The northern hemisphere is four to five times more radioactive than the southern hemisphere. All of the Soviet test fallout and two-thirds of the U. S. radioactivity from Eniwetok falls on the northern hemisphere.

Even with the big increase, the Atomic Energy Commission doesn't think the radioactivity created so far will have "statistically significant" effects.

Fifty to 100 additional cases of cancer per year—a possibility—would constitute individual tragedies but would be lost statistically among the average of 700,000 cancer patients under treatment in the United States.

Khrushchev Visit To U. S. Hinted

NEW YORK (AP)—Officials in Washington are talking seriously about the possibility of a visit to the United States this year by Nikita Khrushchev, the New York Times said today.

A Washington dispatch to the Times said no one in the capital is enthusiastic about inviting the Soviet premier to open the Soviet exposition which will start at the Coliseum in New York City June 30.

However, the story added, "there is considerable official talk about what would happen if he indicated a desire to do so."

The story also said in part that the inclination at the moment is to say that Khrushchev would be invited if he wished to do so.

Career Officer May Get Job Mrs. Luce Quit

WASHINGTON (AP)—John M. Cabot, a career foreign service officer, reportedly is in line to be ambassador to Brazil, the job Clare Boothe Luce quit three days after the Senate confirmed her.

Mrs. Luce won Senate confirmation last week in spite of a bitter fight against her nomination by Sen. Wayne Morse (D-Ore.). But she could not resist a parting shot that her troubles began when Morse was kicked in the head by a horse.

That brought a new uproar in the Senate and on Friday she resigned, saying Morse would continue to harass her in the ambassadorship.

There has been considerable feeling in the Senate that the job should go to a career State Department officer. Last night an authoritative source reported that President Eisenhower will submit Cabot's name in the next few days.

Cabot, 57, now is ambassador to Colombia, and has had long Latin American experience as well as high posts in other parts of the world.

Reuther Spurns Red Labor Rally

DUESSELDORF, Germany (AP)—U.S. labor leader Walter Reuther today spurned an invitation to attend a Communist labor congress in East Germany.

Louis Saillant, president of the Communist-dominated World Federation of Trade Unions, invited Reuther to come to the congress at Goerlitz May 8-10 and say what he liked in a speech.

Reuther termed the WFTU a "tool and colonial agent for the foreign policy of the Soviet Union." He rejected the invitation as "a transparent Communist propaganda maneuver to minimize the impact of the tremendous May 1 freedom rally in West Berlin."

U.S. agricultural exports to Japan increased from 392 million dollars in 1956 to 454 million dollars in 1957, a 16 per cent boost to a new record.

TRAGIC SCENES

Churchill, Ike Visit Two Ailing Friends

By MERRIMAN SMITH

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Everybody tried to be cheerful in the quiet sick rooms as Sir Winston Churchill tapped his cane along the hospital corridors with President Eisenhower at his side.

But well-wishing could not diminish the tragic scenes they found when the President, 68, and his distinguished visitor, 84, went to call at Walter Reed Army Medical Center yesterday afternoon.

They saw Gen. George Catlett Marshall, 78, America's World War II Army chief of staff, lying motionless and virtually speechless, the victim of a stroke.

Then they saw John Foster Dulles, 71, former secretary of state who only a few months ago soared across oceans in jet planes. Yesterday, Dulles, who is fighting cancer, was in a wheelchair when his friends came to visit.

Sir Winston, who moves with some difficulty himself because of what the President called the wear and tear of time, walked to the foot of Marshall's bed and chatted with the five-star general's wife for about two minutes.

Mrs. Marshall assured the former Prime Minister that her husband was delighted to see him. Marshall recognized Churchill, but was unable to converse with him.

White House press secretary James C. Hagerty said it was the first time to his knowledge that it was known that Dulles has to use a wheelchair. The State Department said later that Dulles still could walk and used the wheelchair as a matter of convenience.

The President and Sir Winston took seats in the parlor of the Dulles hospital suite and a medical corpsman rolled the President's staunch friend and adviser into the room. Dulles was in pajamas and a bathrobe.

For a few minutes, the President, Churchill and Dulles chatted privately. When the brief talk about next week's foreign ministers' meeting in Geneva was over, an attendant wheeled Dulles back to his bedroom and the President departed with Churchill.

U. S. Urges Cooperation In Space

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—The United States told a Soviet-boycotted U.N. committee today that the world can expect great things from earth satellites in the fairly near future if every nation cooperates in exploring space.

"In no field of endeavor is cooperation among nations more appropriate or more necessary," U. S. delegate Henry Cabot Lodge said in the organization meeting of the U.N. Committee on Peaceful Uses of Outer Space.

"The job is far too big for any one nation, no matter how big or how advanced in technology that nation may be. Every nation has a part to play and all peoples stand to gain from the results."

Lodge did not mention the boycott of the 18-member committee by the Soviet Union.

Delegates of four other members also stayed away. These were Communist Czechoslovakia and Poland, which backed a Soviet charge that there are too many Westerners on the comittee; and India and the United Arab Republic, which said that to meet now serves no useful purpose. Representatives of all the other 13 were on hand.

The United States took the lead in pressing for today's meeting, which was to elect officers and set up subcommittees.

Belvedere Building Total Hits $160,550

The comparable figure for April, 1958, was $113,800, Rey said.

STUDY IN LEVITATION—Pupils of Mrs. Helen Stewart's third grade class at Larkspur-Corte Madera School got in on a little extra-curricular learning yesterday as they watched two-bedroom house moved down Corte Madera avenue and into place next door to Independent-Journal's Corte Madera office. CD Hospital To Go To New Storage Site

Marin's packed-up disaster hospital, cause of much confusion in the last year, is to be moved to a $2,000 warehouse behind the Point Reyes Station firehouse as soon as the warehouse is constructed, the county board of supervisors decided yesterday.

Three years ago the county leased an empty building of the Rouge et Noir cheese factory in Hicks Valley for the 200-bed emergency hospital. Hicks Valley was to be a civil defense holding area for disaster evacuees.

WRONG HOSPITAL

Last summer it was discovered the county had received the wrong hospital (after it was unpacked) and told that once it got the right hospital it was to remain crated until the state Disaster Office issues an authorizing directive in time of emergency.

"It'll take 48 hours to unpack the thing," muttered Supervisor William D. Fusselman yesterday.

Since last year, civil defense thinking has changed from emphasis on "holding areas" for evacuees to the idea of using available homes, public buildings, motels and other structures with water supplies and sanitary facilities.

WILL CUT COST

County Administrator Donald A. Jensen recommended to the supervisors that the $2,000 warehouse be built so that ultimately the county will spend less for storage of the still-crated hospital equipment. Rent of the cheese factory building is $850 a year.

The only trouble was that the county's five-year contract with Pierce Thompson had two more years to run.

Yesterday Jensen reported to the board that Thompson "in a spirit of cooperation and as a taxpayer" would release the county from the five-year term. The supervisors voted a final rent payment of $850 and to include $2,000 for the Point Reyes Station warehouse in the 1959-60 county budget. They plan to send Thompson a letter of appreciation.

Lynwood Park Directors Elect

Directors of the Lynwood Park Improvement Assn. last night elected Harvey Simpkins president, replacing Arthur Painter, who announced his resignation due to the press of business.

Maj. Marvin Good was elected to succeed Simpkins as vice president. James Bloom was named a director.

The board, meeting at Lynwood School, instructed the study committee, headed by James Edwards, to begin a study of hospital, incorporation and school unification issues in North Marin and arrange for a presentation before the association membership.

Mrs. Carlos Rivermonte, secretary, was instructed to send a letter to the state Division of Highways expressing appreciation for the recent lengthening of the left-turn lane on Highway 101 at the Black Point cutoff.

Honors For Marin Dogs

Rover Run Red Rufus, a Prembrook Welsh Corgi owned by Mr. and Mrs. Walter Simonds of San Rafael, completed his championship and was best of breed, and his little sister, Rover Run Red Rose, was best of opposite sex and added two points toward her championship at the recent Redwood Empire Kennel Club show in Petaluma.

Merger On Agenda For Larkspur

Proposed merger of Larkspur and Corte Madera will be one of the principal items of business for the Larkspur City Council when it meets tonight at 8 o'clock in the city hall.

Scheduled for submission is the final report of the Larkspur Merger Study Committee, which recommends an early election on the question.

The report also urges the council to (1) authorize preparation of election petitions for committee use and (2) ask Public Affairs Research, Inc., to prepare a brochure on the merger proposal for public distribution.

Corte Madera's merger study committee has concluded that consolidation of the Twin Cities would be "disadvantageous to the people of Corte Madera" if based on the Zion survey.

At tonight's meeting, the Larkspur council also will consider a resolution establishing an official city street system and a completely new business license ordinance basing fees on gross receipts. The city's businesses now pay a flat rate.

NMWD Protests Water Impounding

Directors of the North Marin Water District will protest a plan by the D. Grossi estate of Novato to impound 20 acre-feet of water per year on the Novato watershed.

The district board was notified last night by a letter from the state Water Rights Board that the Grossi estate had applied for permission to appropriate water rights in the watershed with the plan to build dams at two places to impound water for livestock and recreational purposes.

Directors expressed fear that other ranchers on the watershed might follow suit, depleting the district's water supply.

Prison To Fete Senior Citizens

San Quentin Prison will fete 140 Marin County senior citizens with a luncheon and entertainment by prison inmates tomorrow afternoon.

The seniors will leave 1825 Fourth street, San Rafael, shortly after noon for the prison under arrangements made by officials of the Marin Senior Citizens Center.

The Marin Senior Assn. will meet at 1:30 p.m. Saturday in San Anselmo's Isabel Cook School. Following a business session, a square dance group of the center will entertain.

Hilton Tells Plans For Big Hotel In S. F.

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Conrad N. Hilton unveiled plans yesterday for a plush San Francisco motel-hotel

Hilton said the 18-story structure would be called the San Francisco Hilton.

Contracts will be awarded about Sept. 30 for the 25-million-dollar building, which Hilton said should be ready for guests in 1961.

He told a press conference that his latest venture in his world-wide chain of hostelries "will have unusual features that no other hotel has."

Among other things, Hilton was referring to the seven floors of parking space which will form the core of the building. He said a special automobile lobby entrance would provide access to ramps connecting the street with the center of floors four through 10, a seven-story parking lot accommodating some 400 cars.

An additional three floors of parking for 300 more cars will be beneath the street level, he said.

The enthusiastic hotel magnate said each room would have a hi-fi set, a television set, individual heat and air conditioning controls, and floor-to-ceiling windows.

4 Districts Keep Counselor Pacts

At least four school districts in Marin County will continue counselor service contracts with the county schools office, Supt. Virgil S. Hollis has told to the county board of education.

Novato, Dixie, San Jose and Sausalito district have signed new contracts for the service for the 1959-60 school year, Hollis said.

The Kentfield and San Anselmo districts have voted to drop such service. Hollis said he had not yet received word from Mill Valley and Reed districts as to whether they plan to continue the service.

The board went on record Monday evening as approving Senate Bill 844, for county board members to be elected at-large rather than in trustee areas.

June 1 is the deadline for applications to fill the vacancies of assistant superintendent and business manager, Hollis said, adding that 23 applications have been received for the superintendency and 16 for the manager's post.

Sixteen staff members thus far have signed contracts for next year, Hollis told board members.

The board approved applications for life diplomas for Kenneth Caldwell Lucas of Central School in Fairfax district; Edith B. Rivasplata and Mary Catherine Sheppard, of Olive School, Maria E. Silva, special Novato district music tearher, and John Joseph Meenan of the San Rafael Elementary School District.

Old Dwelling Moved In Corte Madera

The Independent-Journal's Corte Madera bureau gained a next-door neighbor yesterday —a white-shingled Victorian house believed to be at least 60 years old.

The two-bedroom house, owned by Mrs. Charles Rice of Larkspur, was taken off its foundation at 88 Corte Madera avenue and moved down the street to a steep vacant lot between the I-J office at No. 42 and May's Restaurant at No. 60.

Watching the transplanting with bright-eyed interest were pupils of Mrs. Helen Stewart's third grade class at Larkspur-Corte Madera School.

Also watching, but with concern lest anything get jarred, was Mrs. Leon Shaver, whose belongings were still inside.

Mrs. Shaver and her husband have rented the one-story house for 13 years. They are putting up with apartment dwelling while the moving job is accomplished.

The house will sit on wooden blocks on the sloping upper half of the lot until a concrete foundation has been poured on the lower half, which was leveled last week.

The movers, Hanson Brothers of San Francisco, will return in about two weeks to perform the tricky job of lowering the house onto its new perch.

That done, the Shavers can settle back into the familiarity of their home and start getting used to the unfamiliar neigborhood.

Marin, 2 Cities Receive CD Funds

Marin County, San Rafael and Larkspur have received a total of $1,930.65 in Federal matching fund assistance for civil defense equipment and training thus far this fiscal year. Harold G. Robinson, state civil defense director, announced today.

The California Disaster Office assisted Marin County in obtaining $1,212.60 on a $2,425.20 project; San Rafael $430.20 on a $860.40 project, and Larkspur $287.85 on a $575.70 project, Robinson said.

Federal contributions were made during the July-through-March period. Under the program, cities and counties contributed half the total amount of these items.

Tam District Budget Before Board Tonight

Tamalpais Union High School District's preliminary 1959-60 budget will be submitted to the board of trustees by Supt. Chester G. Carlisle tonight at a meeting in the district office at Redwood High School, starting at 8 o'clock.

Also on the board agenda is a presentation by members of the art departments of Redwood, Tamalpais and Sir Francis Drake High Schools on their respective instructional programs.

Army Major Ends Career Of 20 Years

An Army officer residing in Corte Madera retired this week to end a 20-year career which started in Texas and carried him to posts from Newfoundland to Sydney, Australia.

The Canadian-born officer is Maj. Harold F. Thomas of 28 Harbor drive.

After World War II service in the Southwest Pacific, Thomas served at the New York Port of Embarkation and Ft. Eustis, Va. Then he became comptroller of the Northeast Air Command at Pepperell Air Force Base in Newfoundland.

From there, he came to Ft. Mason, where he was chief of budget and costs division until retirement this week.

Thomas, his wife, Noreen, and four sons, Mike, Dennis, Richard and Peter, will continue residing in Corte Madera as he has launched a business career in San Francisco.

Their Signals Mixed

MARLIN, Texas (UPI) — City dog catcher Elsa Walston announced a stray dog-killing campaign yesterday at the same time Mayor Terry Dickens proclaimed this "Be Kind to Animals Week."

Tiburon Fire Board Accepts Paradise Cay Annexation Bid

Tiburon Fire Protection District commissioners last night voted to accept the Paradise Cay subdivision petition for annexation into the district and set a public hearing on the matter for June 2.

The shoreline property was formerly in the district, but not the tidelands on which over 200 homes are to be built explained Fred C. Hannahs, vice chairman.

The commissioners confirmed Tiburon Fire Chief Jack Ishmael's acceptance of a $1,200 cash bond from the developers of the Mariners' Oaks subdivision in Red Hill to guarantee installation of two fire hydrants on lots fronting on Mar West.

Commissioners voted 3-1 to defer action on a decision as to whether Hannahs can serve as a commissioner and on the volunteer department simultaneously. Hannahs voted against the delay.

Commissioners approved a method of volunteer firemen selection proposed by the association last Friday. Applications will be processed first by the chief, then by the commission and finally by the association.

Hannahs reported a $500 loan arranged with the First National Bank in San Rafael to pay the operating expenses for May. Commissioners unanimously voted to waive their $10 pay for last night's meeting.

Chairman Jon F. Stanton was absent.

Godfrey Doing Well; No Complications

NEW YORK (UPI) — Arthur Godfrey is bouncing back from his cancer operation today with nothing but favorable reports for his complete recovery.

"There have been no setbacks or complications," a hospital bulletin said today.

Doctors said yesterday that the television star is free of cancer as far as they can determine since a malignant tumor was removed from his left lung.

Judges' Shortcomings Crticized In Report

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Long vacations, short hours, chronic intoxication and "profitable" sidelnes from marriage mills and kick-backs were among the complaints lodged against some California judges yesterday in a legislative report on the state's judiciary.

The conclusion of a two-year study by the Joint Legislative Committee on Administrative Justice was that "there is room for improvement" in the running of California courts.

Judges were criticized for long delays in decisions, taking long vacations and short working days despite heavy court backlogs, refusing to accept unpleasant or dull cases, and interrupting court sessions to pursue a profitable sideline in performing marriages.

The report said some judges also tolerate petty rackets "involving kickbacks to court attaches," take the bench while obviously drunk or fail to show up at all, and doggedly hang on to their jobs long after they are disabled by sickness or age.

The committee was headed by State Sen. Edwin J. Regan (D-Weaverville). It made sweeping recommendations for screening judicial appointments, removal of judges for serious misconduct, and tightening administrative supervision of courts.

RESOLUTION JUNKED

Senator Finds Sea Lions Have Too Many Friends

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Sen. Waverly Jack Slattery (D-Finley) is getting pretty tired of sea lions. For a while the feeling was mutual.

The Assembly Fish and Game Committee yesterday rejected Slattery's resolution to have the state Fish and Game Department control California's sea lion population.

Slattery had originally put in a bill to have the department reduce the sea lion herd from almost 20,000 to 5,000.

The freshman senator said the beasts were raising havoc with the salmon industry, eating huge amounts of choice salmon and ruining nets.

The bill didn't get very far, so Slattery put in a resolution asking the department simply to keep the sea lions from eating too many fish.

The resolution passed the Senate, but the sea lions were well represented at yesterday's committee hearing.

Witnesses said they represented the Committee to Save the Sea Lions, Pets and Pals, Pet Welfare, the Humane Society of the United States and the Youth Science Institute of San Jose.

All pleaded for the sea lions' lives. They said, "People feel very strongly about killing sea lions."

"Since this sea lion business came up," Slattery said, "I've been called mean, cruel, stupid, low, dishonest, a bribe taker and bloodthirsty.

"I'm simply trying to help the people in my district who depend on salmon for a living."

One of the assemblyman finally moved that the committee approve the resolution. There was no second.

Real Estate Views and Values

Many times prospective home owners inquire, as we are leaving a house which they find appealing, "Is this home a good buy for me?"

The answer is "Yes," if the home meets these tests.

First, does it fit your family's requirements like a glove? The number of bedrooms and general plan of the house are important here. Also the location. Is it in a neighborhood you like?

Jack Miller

Second, does it compare favorably with other houses in the same price range? This is something you may check yourself. Another approach to its value is on the basis of replacement cost less depreciation. We can assist you in these estimates.

Third, can you afford it? Are the down payment and monthly payment well within the limits of your budget?

Fourth, does it feel like "home" to you? Is it warm and friendly? Can you picture your family comfortably settled in it?

If the answers are "Yes," you have a good buy. We specialize in finding good buys for families. May we help you, too? Wm. Ed Doud & Co., 25 E. Blithedale, Mill Valley, DU 8-8494. Multiple Listing Service.

ANYBODY KNOW WHERE THE SWITCH IS?

School Bonds Endorsed By 4 Candidates

Four of the five candidates for two vacancies on the Mill Valley School District board Monday night endorsed the proposed $600,000 bond issue for classroom expansion which will also be voted on at the May 19 election.

The four appeared at a meeting sponsored by the Mill Valley Voters' Information Group at the Mill Valley City Hall.

Mrs. Evelyn McDougall, outspoken critic of school board policies and a former teacher, opposed the proposed bond issue with the declaration that "if you can't keep up, you can't catch up."

Candidates favoring the issue were incumbent Mrs. Jean Rosse, Henry T. Malcheski, George M. Wood and Mrs. Vera Woodworth.

Compromise Water Plan Introduced

Reaction Ranges From Rejection To Mild Approval

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Gov. Edmund G. Brown's compromise plan to end the north-south water dispute and start building the Feather River Project was before the Legislature today.

Reaction ranged from outright rejection to cautious approval as the plan was introduced in the Senate yesterday.

The Democratic governor called agreement on the water issue imperative in the six weeks remaining before adjournment.

He said a water program and a balanced budget were his "two great commitments to the people."

Brown expressed confidence that his new plan will end sectional strife and lead to immediate construction.

"California cannot afford another year's delay," he said, pointing to the present drought and falling ground water levels.

The plan, introduced by Sen. Hugh M. Burns (D-Fresno), would authorize issuance of up to one and three-quarter billion dollars in general obligation bonds over a 15-year period. That's nearly double the 960 million the governor previously proposed.

The huge bond issue would assure enough money to complete the statewide water plan, Brown said.

In fact, he said, the total bond issue needed might be several hundred million dollars less than the authorized amount. The Legislature already has earmarked for water the 172-million-dollar investment fund plus future tidelands oil income and water project revenues.

Adequate financing, the governor indicated, should placate fears of both north and south that their parts of the state plan wouldn't be built before the money ran out.

Brown said his plan would strengthen the bond issue proposal in every way.

Laws About 'Eyes' Of Blind Should Not Be Weakened

A bill has sneaked through the State Senate which would have an extremely bad affect on a valuable service to blind people in California. This is important to us in Marin because we have Guide Dogs For the Blind's training school here.

The measure is SB 996, now before the Assembly Governmental Efficiency and Economy Committee. It would amend present sections of the State Guide Dog Act, including the portions dealing with the need for licensed trainers at a school which prepares dogs for use by blind people.

The present law is strict—but it is fair and for the good of the blind persons being helped. It gives great powers to the State Board of Guide Dogs For the Blind and a solid foundation from which to administer these powers.

The proposed amendments would weaken this power by diluting the basis for it. For example:

Guide Dogs For the Blind's school north of San Rafael has six full time trainers and two apprentices who expect to take their state board examinations this summer. When blind students are in the school for their four week course of instruction with their new dogs, those trainers are on duty 24 hours per day.

Yet the proposed law would not require any licensed trainer to be in constant attendance at the school, only that one be "in supervisory charge" of the training program. This might mean that he could work practically anywhere else and drop around only often enough at the school to be "in supervisory charge" of whoever was training both the dogs and their masters.

Not only that, but the proposed law says an apprentice trainer who has had one year's experience can be given a license merely by the "certification" of another license trainer, if a shortage of trainers exists. At present there is a method for the board to issue temporary permits in such an emergency.

One of the principal spokesmen for the bill when it was heard in Senate committee, was an attorney for a training school which has had its license suspended for not having a licensed trainer.

We are concerned here with the "eyes" of blind people. The dogs are a poor substitute when compared with the real thing, but they are a valuable asset in making blind persons self-confident and self-supporting.

We can not afford to take a chance on poor training either for the dog or the dog-man team. A poorly trained dog could easily lead his master to injury or death.

Now that the dangerous quality of SB 996 has been called to the attention of our representatives in Sacramento, we hope the bill will be killed forthwith.

Little Bird With Big Name

Who is the active little fellow twittering around in the dark brown friar's cap? Why it's the plump and cheerful chickadee, of course!

See him in the bushes, hanging from a branch like a trapeze artist as he picks some particularly delicate morsel of insect eggs from their hiding place. This way and that, up and town, always on the go with its cheerful "tsik, tsik, tsik" conversation, except when it is busy hammering open a nut or a seed on a limb.

During the fall and winter chickadees flock together, but in spring and summer they travel in pairs. They make their nests in abandoned woodpecker holes or similar holes in trees.

He's not very choosy about his diet, but he does like insects and their eggs which makes him a good friend of farmers and gardeners. Before DDT he was the secret weapon of many orchardists who encouraged him through the winter with feeding stations.

We in Marin have our own special chickadee. The Marin chickadee is a subspecies of the Chestnut-backed Chickadee. Penthestes rufescens neglectus is the big name for this small bird.

Frenchman Says English Superior To Americans In Sense Of Humor

NEW YORK (AP) — As if our world weren't already topsy-turvy enough, now along comes a Frenchman who says the English can see the point of a joke quicker than Americans.

"The English have a very good sense of humor," said Robert Dhery, star, author and director of the hit Broadway revue, "La Plume de ma Tante."

"They love gags. It's funny because they seem so strait-laced and serious.

"They can see a gag coming. They laugh quicker, louder—and shorter—than here. They give a sharp laugh, then quit, and you have to have another gag ready.

"The Americans laugh slower and longer."

Dhery also has found a difference between French and American audiences.

"I like it here because the audience comes to the theater ready to laugh and enjoy itself," he said. "In France they go to see whether you can make them laugh. There is a difference."

Dhery, the slender mobile-faced son of a Chablis miller, has been in some 20 films. He is also one of the busiest revue directors in Paris.

"Few revues in Paris last as long as six months," he said. "And people there book their tickets only a few days ahead at most.

"Here a man and his wife may buy their tickets as much as four months ahead. Then on the night of the show their seats are empty. When I see this it makes me mad. I can only suppose they have died in the meanwhile."

ONE AMERICAN theatrical custom which both Dhery and Collette, his blonde wife and co-star, find an utter abomination is the matinee.

"Collette has 17 costume changes. On matinee days she has to change her clothes 34 times. If she did nothing but this, she would be tired," he said.

Asked what impressed them most about America, Collette said, the smoky city streets, and Dhery said, Sunday newspapers. "They are so heavy. We have nothing like them in England or France," he said.

THE DHERYS have found Manhattan a cultural wonderland.

"I cannot understand your buffet parties," said Dhery. "They are so crowded there is no place to sit down.

"I went to one buffet party where there were 200 or 300 guests. I glanced into a bathroom, and there was a young lady enjoying her meal all by herself. It was the only place she could find to sit down."

Authority Of P.U.C. Questioned

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

May I, through the medium of your esteemed paper, seek the answers to certain questions that are puzzling me?

The questions are:

1) For what reason did the California Public Utilities Commission recently ban cigarette smoking in the rear section of interurban buses?

2) Who petitioned such a ruling?

3) What legal basis exists for the Public Utilities Commission to issue an order prohibiting cigarette smoking in interurban buses when a State Law specifically sets aside a section of a bus where cigarette smoking may be permitted, unless prohibited by law?

4) How enforceable is such a ruling in Counties that have no specific ordinance against cigarette smoking in buses?

5) Who is to enforce the ban, presuming that it is enforceable?

The answers, by an authority, to these perplexing questions would be most appreciated.

State Department Sees No War With Russia Or Red China In Near Future

WASHINGTON (AP) — What is the likelihood of war with the Communist world any time soon?

And where, since communism is dedicated to conquering the earth, will the Soviets and Red Chinese do their pushing?

The State Department has provided careful answers to both questions. It doesn't rule out some shooting on a limited scale, if the Communists think it worth the price and the danger.

But the department says: For the foreseeable future it is likely the Soviets and Red Chinese will avoid all-out war and try to push their programs by political, economical and psychological means.

THE STATE Department gave written answers to a series of questions from the Senate's Disarmament Subcommittee.

Although the department is optimistic about avoiding a world war, it said enough to show it expects this country to have its hands full trying to cope with the Red bloc for years to come.

One thing the department made clear: It is satisfied that Premier Nikita Khrushchev, having eliminated his rivals, is undisputed boss of the Soviet Union and that therefore the political situation there should be stable for years.

It is ironic that just a few days before the May 11 meeting at Geneva—between the Western and Soviet foreign ministers to talk about troubles in Europe—the department should be anticipating no end of trouble from the Communist bloc around the world.

SO LONG AS the West remains as well armed as the Soviets—and therefore could make all-out war unendurable—there isn't likely to be a general war.

But the Soviets' main thrust will probably continue to be in the under-developed countries, with main emphasis on the Middle East, where anti-Western feeling and native Communist help gives the Soviets hope for takeover.

Latin America and particularly the newly emerging countries of Africa will probably become increasingly important targets of Moscow's political-economic offensive.

The department added: "In Europe the basic Soviet objective is consolidation of Moscow's control in Eastern Europe and reduction of Western military strength, particularly that of the United States.

"Soviet policies there for the foreseeable future will thus be aimed at tightening Moscow's grip on what it has and depriving the west of its advantage there rather than at direct Soviet expansion, although they will also seek to force the West from its position in Berlin."

AS FOR THE RED Chinese: For the immediate future the most likely form of Chinese Communist expansion is continued effort to increase political and economic influence, especially in Southeast Asia, through trade offensives, subversion and political pressure.

The dtpartment seems less hopeful that the Red Chinese will refrain from shooting.

It said: "An attack could of course take place anywhere along the perimeter of Communist-controlled territory in Asia."

Algernon Swinburne was leaving his London club one evening, and looked for his hat. All the poet could find were four top-hats belonging to other members of the club

In a rage, he threw the toppers on the floor, and was doing a war dance on them when a hall porter came running up to discover the cause of the commotion.

"Where's my hat?" thundered Swinburne.

"Sir," replied the porter, "you had none. You told me the evening was so fine you decided to come without one."

"You are absolutely correct," agreed the poet, his anger vanishing. Then, looking at the ruined hats on the floor, he added, "I imagine the other gentlemen won't be using theirs, either."

Labor Reform Bill Before Congress Isn't Perfect, But Good Basic Law

Having been passed by the Senate, the labor reform bill now goes to the House which is expected to hold hearings throughout the month of May. The main debate will be whether the amended Kennedy bill should be toughened or softened.

In fact, however, the overriding national interest is that a bill should be passed which establishes the principle, as does the Senate bill, that there is a public interest in the internal management of the labor unions, and that the right to regulate them is legally recognized and universally accepted.

THIS IS EVER so much more important than any specific provision of the bill. The regulation of labor unions in order to prevent the crimes and abuses revealed by the McClellan Committee is a vast undertaking. There are in this country some 200 national unions and some 60,000 local unions. They have a membership of about 17,000,000 workers.

It is easy to say that these unions must all be honestly and faithfully administered in a democratic way. But it will not be easy for the federal government to enforce these desirable criteria in a vast and complex community like the labor unions.

IT IS NO GOOD to say "there ought to be a law" against this or that when the real question is what kind of law can be expected to work. Anybody can write a bill which commands what he thinks should and should not be done. But what counts is a bill which not only points in the right direction, but offers a good prospect of moving in that direction.

By this test the Senate bill is a good one. The proof that it is good is that it was passed unanimously, taking account of Sen. Goldwater's dissent for the sake of the record. The bill has the support of the responsible labor leaders, beginning with George Meany. Thus, if enacted into law, we may expect that there will be a large amount of voluntary observance and a limited need for measures of enforcement.

I have not in recent months followed in detail the exposures of the McClellan Committee. But a year ago, its sensational exposures of racketeering and corruption had covered only seven out of nearly 200 national unions. No doubt there are others which need to be exposed.

NO DOUBT ALSO, there are a great many which are honestly and faithfully run. Their example and support are very necessary to effective regulation of the labor movement.

In my view, the critically important and desirable feature of the bill is the requirement for detailed financial reports. If this requirement can be enforced, if there is full and continuing disclosure of the income, the investments, and the expenditures of the unions, the foundation of effective regulations will have been laid. This will not be the last bill to regulate the unions which is to come before Congress. The regulation of corporations was not done in one bill. It has evolved with experience. The same will be true of the regulation of the unions.

Novato Growing Pains Increase As Town Faces Three Big Issues

NOVATO'S GROWING pains will apparently become sharper in the near future as residents of the area face three questions which figuratively — and one of them literally — divide the community in two.

First comes the question of secession from the Marin County Hospital District, which will come to a vote May 26.

The first few salvoes in this war have already been fired, with hospital district directors threatening to raise hospital rates for Novatans if they secede from the district, and a blast in return from Dr. Paul O'Rourke of Novato that the rate decision was motivated by political considerations.

The hospital question is complicated a bit by a recent announcement by directors of the Novato General Hospital Corporation that financing has been assured for the corporation's planned 30-bed Novato hospital.

At the hospital district board hearing on the secession proposal some weeks ago, a question was asked as to why the area had to get out of the district to permit building of a private hospital.

The secessionists' answer was that lending agencies would look with much greater favor on putting up money for the private hospital if the area it would serve were not in a public hospital district.

With financing already assured, this argument seems to go by the boards, and anti-secessionists will probably again wonder, very audibly, why the area's residents must get out of the district and face higher rates at Marin General Hospital.

SECOND MAJOR question which will face Novatans soon is that of incorporating the area as a city.

With approval of the proposed city boundaries by the county boundary commission Monday, the way is cleared for circulating incorporation petitions and for a battle royal between the pros and the antis before this question comes to a vote in the fall.

There has been no indication of whether he was serious, but it can safely be assumed that he would be against his own proposal if anybody ever took it seriously and carried it to the voting stage.

His idea, no doubt, is to muddy up the incorporation waters so thoroughly that people will vote "No" on anything that mentions the word "incorporation."

THE THIRD question before the Novato house — this is the one that literally divides the community in two — is that of the state's plans for the 101 Freeway through Novato.

Eleven Novatans went to the San Francisco office of the state division of highways Monday for a look-see at the plan for an elevated dirt-fill freeway through the heart of Novato.

They didn't protest too strenuously at the time, but indications are that at least some of them are holding their fire until the plan comes before the board of supervisors, which must enter into a freeway agreement with the state before the freeway goes through.

There will be local disagreement on this one, too. Some Novatans, including some of those who attended the Monday meeting, consider the plan as good as can feasibly be developed.

Others attack it as "cutting Novato in half" and "ruining our business district."

General view of those who attended is that it was informative to see the actual plan instead of guessing at it through various rumors, and it should be given considerable study before taking a position one way or the other.

Chamber of Commerce President Lee Wise, for one, wants to think the matter over pretty carefully. He points out that highway division officials estimate the cost of rerouting the freeway elsewhere than through the center of town would up the cost from one to 3.5 million dollars.

He notes that individual citizens as well as chambers of commerce must think in terms of saving tax dollars as well as in terms of what they want for their localities.

Redwood High Gets Forensic Group Charter

Redwood High School's chapter of the National Forensic League has official status now, newly-elected president Martin Gerry of Kentfield has announced.

The speaking group was the only one between Oregon and Salinas to receive a charter this year, he said. The National Forensic League chooses one school within the district for the honor every two years.

The last preceding new chapter was at Sir Francis Drake High School in San Anselmo.

With the charter, Redwood's 25 members can compete for National Forensic League scholarships and are eligible to take part in national speaking finals. They will have seals on their high school diplomas and recognition on applications to colleges.

Young Gerry, president of the chapter, holds the National Forensic League's highest award, the "degree of distinction." Other officers are Geoffrey Brown of Greenbrae, vice president, and Don Dean of Greenbrae, secretary, Joseph Wadlington, speech instructor, is adviser.

About half the population of the U.S. brushes its teeth twice a day, according to a recent survey, and 15 per cent three times a day.

Kids Eligible For Play Program

Children in the area of the Strawberry Point School may participate in the Strawberry Recreation District summer recreation program this year on the same fee basis as those residing in the district, directors have decided.

The matter arose several months ago when the Strawberry Parent-Teacher Assn. complained to the Mill Valley School District board that if the school is to be used for the program, all children should be eligible to participate regardless of whether they live within recreation district boundaries.

Mrs. J. W. Gowen, secretary, said the fee is determined by the assessed valuation of the property where the child resides multiplied by the district's 60-cent tax rate. The fee covers all members of the family and averages about $20 per person, she said.

This year's program starts June 29 and ends Aug. 14, Mrs. Gowen said. Applications must be in the hands of the board in writing or in person at the board's June 17 meeting.

A paper structure has been designed that can serve as a duck blind, camping shelter or play house.

Giants Home For 24-Game Stand

The second place San Francisco Giants are back for a home stand in which they entertain all other clubs in the National League, beginning with Los Angeles tomorrow afternoon.

The club had a 6-6 win-loss record for its first long road trip, including a 5-2 loss to Cincinnati last night. A .500 percentage on the road is considered good, particularly inasmuch as this involved winning a series at Milwaukee.

In tomorrow's opener with the Dodgers, Manager Bill Rigney is sending Jack Sanford (4-1) to pitch against Bob Williams.

Sanford is 1-0 against the Dodgers, having beaten them 6-3 on April 22. Williams has no won-loss record against San Francisco.

There will be 24 home games in 27 days.

The Giants were shackled last night by Cincinnati's big Don Newcombe, who won his first game of the season with a five-hit performance before a crowd of 13,822.

The only damaging blows against him were a solo homer by Willie Kirkland in the fourth and a double by Willie Mays in the sixth that scored Kirkland, who had walked.

In the fifth they had three more — Frank Robinson slamming his seventh homer of the season into the right field bleachers with Johnny Temple and Vada Pinson on base.

Sad Sam Jones, lifted for a pinch-hitter in the seventh, was charged with the loss. He was relieved by Stu Miller, who allowed two of the Redlegs' seven hits. Jones now has won two, lost four.

GIANT BEATERS — Frank Robinson (right), who hit a three-run homer in the fifth inning, and Frank Thomas, who slammed a triple during a two-run uprising in the third inning, provided the fireworks last night as Cincinnati won over the Giants, 5-2 at Cincinnati. (AP Wirephoto)

JACK HANLEY'S REPORT

Great Plays Wowed Fans In Milwaukee

By JACK HANLEY
I-J Correspondent

SAN FRANCISCO — Five sparkling plays that might even merit the classification of great were the dazzling highlights of the Giants' initial 1959 swing through the National League cities. All of them were made in the County Stadium, home of the Milwaukee Braves.

As the Giants flew in before dawn this morning from Cincinnati, they still were talking about catches made by Felipe Alou, Jimmy Davenport and Willie Mays. And in a different tone, they also were talking about a pair of rally-stopping plays by the veteran Brave shortstop Johnny Logan.

Alou, with a tumbling, one-handed catch of a liner drilled to right by Logan, made a big third out in the fourth inning of the second game with the Braves. Hank Aaron, the amazing Brave belter, and Joe Adcock, who also knocks the ball long and far, were on base at the time and certain to score if Alou had not robbed Logan of the hit. It was a game-saving catch.

The next day, in the final game which was the only one the Braves won, Logan got his revenge. Johnny Antonelli started off the third inning with a rifle shot up the middle. Logan, whose 32 years should not allow him to move as fast as he did, gloved the ball behind second base and then made a spectacular off-balance throw to get Antonelli by a step at first base.

UP CAME Jimmy Davenport who doubled to right center which certainly would have put Antonelli at least on third if not across the plate. But that effort by Davenport also was nullified a moment later when Logan made his revenge complete.

Willie Kirkland tagged a sizzling grounder, perfectly placed in the hole between third and short. Logan, moving as fast to his right as he did to his left for Antonelli's up-the-middle blow, backhanded Kirkland's smash at the edge of the outfield grass and Davenport was trapped off second for an easy force out.

THE CRITICAL importance of Logan's plays was underscored by what the next batter did. He was Mays, who had staked the Giants to a 2-0 lead with a 410-foot two-run homer over the center field fence in the first inning.

Mays this time drove a liner to left center—over Logan's head and too high for him to catch—but Willie was out at second, trying to stretch it to a double when he didn't slide, believing he had Andy Pafko's throw beat.

Here were four blows—Antonelli's, Davenport's, Kirkland's and May's—that didn't score a run. Some days the hits drop in holes. But this wasn't one of those days.

They gave credit for that Brave victory to Aaron's two homers and a five-run fifth inning that Andre Rodgers set in motion with an error. But it was Mr. Logan who did the job even before the fifth.

In that same game, Davenport made a running catch of a foul Pafko lofted back of third base. It was a beautiful one-handed piece of work for which the third base "Peanut" is acquiring a deserved reputation.

OF ALL the excellent defensive plays in that game, perhaps the best was Mays' two-handed, leaping catch of Adcock's seventh inning drive that was clearing the 10-foot center field fence 402 feet from home base.

Mays, who has made a number of great catches in his career, doesn't rate them but the fact that he used two hands for Adcock's was all the evidence anyone needed to be sure it wasn't a routine affair.

Asked whether he would rate it among his great catches, Mays said:

"That's the job of you reporters."

P.S.—It was a great catch.

Moegle, Bosley Sign Contracts

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The San Francisco 49ers announced yesterday that halfback Dick Moegle and guard Bruce Bosley have signed their 1959 pro football contracts.

Terms were not made public.

Moegle, out most of last season with an injured knee, re-injured it in February while playing basketball. Doctors said he is recovered from a second operation and will be ready to report for training Aug. 1.

M.V. Yankees Triumph

Although their pitchers walked 14 batters, the Yankees managed to eke out a 12-11 victory over the Giants last night in the Mill Valley National Little League.

NORTH BAY LEAGUE

Redwood Heads Wave Of Upsets

Underdogs kicked up their heels in the North Bay League baseball race yesterday to provide the biggest wave of upsets of the local high school season.

Drake's 6-5 win over second place Tamalpais and San Rafael's 4-1 decision over Santa Rosa were surprising enough, but the real startler took place at Albert Field in San Rafael where the Redwood Giants, who hadn't won a league game in eight previous tries, knocked off the previously undefeated Napa Indians, 5-4.

The only favorite to avoid an upset—but barely—was undefeated Vallejo which shaded Montgomery, 3-2 at Vallejo. That gave the Apaches a 9-0 record and moved them closer to the NBL pennant.

The upset of the year saw Coach Al Endriss' Redwood Giants execute two successful squeeze plays in the bottom of the seventh to knock off Napa.

After the Napans forged into a 4-3 lead in the top of the seventh, the Giants opened their comeback with pinch-hitter Tom Leps delivering a single. Len Hail, running for Leps, moved to second on a passed ball and to third on an infield hit by Hugh Holzaphel. After the latter stole second, Hail scored on a squeeze bunt by Ernie Bray, Holzaphel going to third on the play. Then Bob Ostaggi squeezed him home with the winning run.

Redwood's three previous runs came on a two-run single by Guy Hannah in the first inning and a one-run single by Bob Anderson in the fourth.

Napa's big stick was shortstop Bob Waring who drove in all four runs with a home run and two singles.

Bob Ostaggi, who relieved Butch Brear, was the winning pitcher; Tom Jeffords, in relief of Bill Robertson, was the loser.

Drake virtually eliminated Tamalpais from the title race when a wild pitch scored Dick Spackman with the Pirates winning run in the ninth inning. Spackman was on third after drawing a walk and moving along on a sacrifice by Paul White and short singles by Vince Pallavicini and Keith Chapman.

The game was forced into extra innings when Drake scored a run in the last of the seventh to knot it up at 5-5. Spackman tallied that big marker too when he walked, moved to third on a hit-batter and passed ball and came in on Chapman's single.

Art Bresnan's fourth inning home run was Drake's biggest blast while Ron Slack and Dave Broome each tripled for Tam. Broome, Tim Farrell and Bill Buffalow each had a pair of safeties for the losers.

San Rafael's 4-1 upset at Santa Rosa was featured by John Spadoni's four-hit, seven-strikeout pitching. The Bulldogs bunched all their runs in a big sixth inning when Mike Cicero, Russ Bottini, Billy Roberts and Rich Curry scored on two wild pitches and an error.

Friday's NBL schedule: Montgomery at Drake, San Rafael vs. Redwood at Albert Field; Napa at Santa Rosa and Vallejo at Tam, all games starting at 4 o'clock.

Opera Company Seeking Antlers

Do you have any old antlers hanging around the house? If so, Mary Putney of Mill Valley will be happy to hear from you.

Mrs. Putney, who is in charge of properties for the Mill Valley Light Opera Company's presentation of Van Flotow's opera "Martha," seeks a number of off-beat items.

"The antlers will be helpful for a hunting scene in which members of the court of Queen Anne go a-hunting, and in which the heroine and hero . . . but we won't reveal what happens," Mrs. Putney said.

"Martha" is to be given in the San Rafael High School auditorium on May 21, 22, 23, 29 and 30.

Marin Plays Serra Friday For Pennant

Marin Catholic's Wildcats moved into a first-place tie in the Catholic Athletic League baseball race yesterday with a 7-0 triumph over Riordan and will battle co-leader Serra Friday for the championship.

The title game will be played in San Mateo starting at 3:30 p.m.

Yesterday's triumph featured the two-hit pitching of Craig Goldman and the big bats of Doug Wilson, John Boccabella and Gary Bartolotti.

The Wildcats broke the game wide open in the third inning when Wilson blasted a bases-loaded triple and Boccabella and Bartolotti followed with back-to-back home runs.

The Wildcats' seventh run came in the fifth frame when Goldman singled home Ron Blum.

Search On For Missing Climbers

BISHOP, Inyo County (UPI)—Sheriff's deputies and Sierra Club mountain climbers today searched for two climbers who failed to return Sunday night from a weekend excursion.

Francis Foley of La Crescenta and Burl Parkinson of South Pasadena, both about 50, left last Friday for mountain climbing in the area 30 miles north of here on the California-Nevada border.

They planned to climb 13,465-foot Mt. Montgomery and 13,154-foot Boundary Peak, the highest point in Nevada.

Both were experienced climbers.

Wells College on Cayuga Lake in New York State was founded in 1868 by Henry Wells of the famous Wells Fargo express company.

Giardello-Mims Even Bet In TVer Tonight

The even-money match of opposite styles — Mims the change-of-pace boxer and Giardello the socker—will be on view on the regular Wednesday night TV fight channel—ABC, 7 o'clock, PST.

With Sugar Ray Robinson partly dethroned and middleweight opportunities expanding, none could be more concerned over the outcome than Mims and Giardello.

The National Boxing Assn. has ruled Robinson undeserving of its version of the title for failing to defend in more than a year. Two ex-champs, Carmen Basilio and Gene Fullmer, will meet for the NBA crown this summer.

Robinson is still recognized, but coldly, by the New York State Athletic Commission. That group has ordered Sugar Ray to sign for a defense by May 15.

Under the NBA program, the Basilio-Fullmer victor must promptly risk his title against a recognized challenger. Spider Webb of Chicago would appear to have the edge, but Giardello contends a triumph over Mims will get him a match with Basilio here this summer—provided Carmen beats Fullmer.

Mims, a 30-year-old Washington veteran, has won 45 of his 68 fights, including a decision last year over Webb. He ed himself-8C io has kayoed 11, never been kayoed himself, but lost 17 decisions. He also has six draws.

Giardello, kayoed by Webb in seven rounds last November, has lost three in a row, but still ranks with Mms among the top eight challengers listed by NBA and Ring magazine.

Joey has won 75, lost 16, and five called a draw and one no contest. He has kayoed 26 and been stopped three times.

SOLON ASKS PROBE OF TAHOE FISH

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Assemblyman Paul Lunardi (D-Roseville) yesterday introduced a resolution in the Legislature asking the state fish and game department to find out why fishing isn't better at Lake Tahoe.

He said the lake which straddles the California- Nevada border at one time abounded in cutthroat trout and whitefish but both have disappeared completely.

Lad Beaned, Dies In Boys League

DALLAS (AP)—A Boys Baseball League player died yesterday several hours after being hit in the head by a pitched ball. Phillip Johnson, 13, was hit while batting Monday night. His father said the boy wore his plastic protective helmet inside his cap. Doctors blamed a brain injury.

A vodka manufacturer's survey found that 54 per cent of all drinkers questioned don't like the taste of liquor.

Chevy pickup pulls through "bottomless" pastures to keep stock fed!

At the Hall Bros. Dairy Farm, Montgomery, Ala., they say this 4-wheel drive Chevy will go anywhere to keep stock fed—even through hub-deep muck that makes it a fight all the way. And yet after a full year of it—no mechanical trouble of any kind!

That Chevy pickup may not win any beauty awards (till it's cleaned up). But it's sure walking off with the top prize for dependability. And that's standard Chevrolet procedure. Put a Chevy truck to work and it keeps on working until you say quit. Not before.

We aren't claiming that every Chevrolet truck is turning out to be a miracle-worker and averaging 100,000 miles before a valve job. (Even though some are going 150,000!) You're sure to find, however, that you can't buy more truck dependability at any price. And that's borne out by the fact that more truck owners put their faith, and their payloads, in Chevrolets than in any other make.

Take your load and schedule figures to your Chevrolet dealer. He'll specify the best way to handle both and save in the bargain.

No job's too tough for a Chevrolet truck! CHEVROLET

Pheasant Hen Proposal Opens Up Game Management Controversy

By EDWIN S. CAPPS

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — The Fish and Game Commission proposal to permit Northern California pheasant hunters to kill one hen during the 1959 season opens up one of the basic questions and controversies of modern game management.

While it has no effect on Southern California hunters, the pheasant program is perhaps a good testing ground for theories of game management. It has all the elements, emotion, doubts and conflicts of deer management, but to a lesser degree.

Northern pheasantmen were permitted to take one hen in their seasonal limit of 10 in the three years 1955-57. The kills for those years were up considerably and most of this was attributed to taking of the hens. While many hunters bag only two or three birds per season, most of these were able to include the one hen. The one hen would only account for 10 per cent if every hunter killed 10 birds, but it amounted to a much higher percentage.

While the commission's announced determination to permit one hen this year was done without departmental recommendation, biologists of the department had maintained the hen kill in 1955-57 did no harm whatsoever to the hen population. They said most of the birds killed by the hunters probably would have been winter casualties.

Objections to the shooting of hens largely fall into the same category of those against shooting female deer. The principal ones are: (1) fear that killing of females would deplete populations; and (2) natural abhorrence against shooting any female animal.

Both are based primarily on emotions. However, the fear that killing of female pheasants or deer would not deplete populations never has been allayed completely by department reports. For these same biologists, in advance of either-sex shooting, had predicted very definitely that no harm would result.

Their conclusions, following such hunts, that—true to their forecast—no harm had been done, always were subject to suspicion.

The chief arguments in favor of killing hen pheasants, or antlerless deer are: (1) no danger of depletion of population results and, in the case of deer, herds actually would benefit from thinning out of surplus animals; and (2) considerable extra game, and hunting success, is provided the hunters at no extra cost.

Thus there is some basis for the belief a successful limited either-sex program for pheasant hunters over a period of years might lead the way to public acceptance of either-sex deer harvest and management. The commission is certain to run into a wall of criticism and protest on May 29 when it considers the pheasant regulations. Perhaps it might consider retention of a hen-in-the-bag, despite protests, as a test run for other management programs.

Shooting of hen pheasants, of course, is much easier for the public to accept than female deer. While there is a certain beauty and naiveness about does, pheasant hunters who have seen hens sit tight until stepped on know they're wily birds.

And one of the most troublesome aspects of either-sex deer hunt—killing of fawns—is not present in the pheasant situation. No pheasant chicks are around by hunting season time.

Use of either-sex pheasant hunting to lay groundwork for acceptance of either-sex deer management, of course, would depend on reliable reports of results and acceptance of such reports by the public.

TROJANS NIP OXY, 35 TO 2

LOS ANGELES (AP)—It must have seemed like the longest three innings in history to Phil Gabben.

During that time, the University of Southern California blasted the Occidental College pitcher for 25 runs.

Relieving Gabben didn't help much. The non-conference game was stopped after 6½ innings yesterday. The score: USC 35, Occidental 2.

The BULLPEN

With JOHN J. CONNOLLY

Maybe Fans Could Help Rigney Solve His Pitching Problems?

CONNOLLY

You can't get a haircut, shoe shine or bite to eat that you don't plop up against cloudbursts of proposals by well-meaning baseball fans.

The last word I heard from Horace Stoneham, owner of the Giants, is that his cranium is starting to bulge and he has to keep his glasses taped on.

No one person seems to have the same slant on our Giants.

One critic I bumped into asked me if the Giants hired a comic valentine to manage the ball club. He was that disgusted with the way Bill Rigney has been handling the pitchers.

It probably sounds disconnected and a bit on the haywire side but I 'd like to launch a campaign among the customers to find out if there is any way they might help skipper Rigney handle his pitching problems.

THIS BASEBALL hysteria about the Giants, mind you, isn't a slur against the sort of ball the team has been playing, just merely a variance as to how it is being done, or should be done, to get better results.

Second guessing is baseball's secret weapon. Sometimes it works okay and other times it is frustrating.

Meanwhile the "interest" in what the Giants are going is the main event.

No one is sore at Rigney, nor at Willie Mays or at Andre Rodgers. They all want to help and in helping they may be over-stepping themselves.

What every one is looking forward to is a succession of Giant victories, and in a tight race such as we have this season, it's mighty tough to handle, or to get.

FOUR GAMES with the Dodgers, one at night, means an early season fork in the road for both clubs.

There is no better or safer place for the Giants to steady down and go forward in the flag chase than in their own backyard.

The Dodgers of Los Angeles definitely are one of the top teams in the Giants' plan of attack. The Giants got into third place in 1958 because they were able to cuff the Southland visitors around at will.

This year the Dodgers are seeing colors of all sorts before their eyes and so far there isn't any 'yellow' in front of them. So the fight this week is a down to earth conflict between clubs that as they shape up today, are among the front runners.

SHUFFLING pitchers is a manager's most trying job. No matter what he does, if it doesn't turn out for the best, he is charged with an error of judgment.

If he does make a switch and it turns out fine, then the fans maintain, it was the only thing he could have done.

However the one strong point in baseball managing is to learn how to juggle pitchers.

Some clubs like the Yanks have so many good pitchers, they really have no juggling or shuffling problems.

But in the case of the Giants, there isn't too much of a surplus for such tactics. Outside of Sanford, Jones, Antonelli, Miller and McCormick the "firemen" are rather skimpy.

EVERY MANAGER wants to win today's game today. But not all of 'em will sacrifice two starting pitchers to turn the trick.

Rigney adheres to the above category. He will use up four or even five of his best men, if he sees a chance for victory. And whether that policy is right or wrong, remains to be seen.

The four games with L. A. is to be followed by a pair with Pittsburgh, a pair with Philadelphia and a trio with Cincinnati and Milwaukee. And those games are for the chips.

Joan Aquilino Wins Tournament At Indian Valley

Joan Aquilino is the Indian Valley Women's Golf Club's Spring Handicap Tournament champion following her finals victory, 2 and 1, yesterday over Ann Coleman.

In yesterday's Stableford Tournament, in which players got 1 point for a bogey, 2 for a par, 3 for a birdie, 4 for an eagle and 5 for a hole-in-one, Mrs. Jerry Evans registered 41 points to lead Class A, followed by Mrs. .Doris Sumpter with 40 and Mrs. William May with 38.

Land Of Caracul, Kobul, Home Ec

By AMBER EUSTUS

Speaking of home economics in Afghanistan . . . seriously, they do teach it there. To be honest, we have given little thought to Afghanistan in recent years and its home economics program had never crossed our minds.

What brings us up to date is the visit of two charming young women from that country's capital (Quick, what is the capital of Afghanistan?)

We met them through the International Hospitality Center of San Francisco, of which Mrs. Allyn G. Smith is executive director. It was our privilege to show them the sights of the city and Sausalito, and we punctuated their wonderment with a few questions.

Mrs. Homaira Hamedi, principal of a high school of some 2,500 girls, seems scarcely more than a student herself. A bride of only two months, she found it very difficult to leave her new husband, even for the two exciting months in America. Miss Mariam Shah, due to be married in two months, teaches home economics in a high school of 2,000.

They are Moslem, as are most of their countrymen.

The country is young so far as education is concerned, especially for women. But it is surprisingly progressive. Education is free for all, including a stipend for carfare, lunches and books. Since the best schools and all the high schools are concentrated in Kabul, the capital (pop. 206,000), those in the country areas frequently take up the government's offer of free board and room in special dormitories in the capital.

Girls are offered curriculums in business education, home economics and medicine. So far, the fields in which they are employed are somewhat limited, but many of them are employed as telephone operators.

The home economics program was set up about 14 years ago, beginning with the training of teachers. Kabul has no universities as yet, but expects to have them set up very soon.

In spite of the remoteness of Afghanistan, the two visitors seemed very much like teachers we already know. The fact that they spoke English readily (a second language is required in their schools) crumbled the barriers of unfamiliarity.

They wore simple tailored clothes and short casual haircuts. Miss Shah is most concerned about losing some of her 55 kilos before her wedding in two months.

Both of them like American food, although it is quite different from the highly spiced Afghanistani food.

'Strange, but I don't miss the seasoning at all," said Miss Shah. "And most of all, I love the orange juice."

Actually, Afghanistan food borrows somewhat from the seasoning of India 'but not so much spiciness." Rice is a staple and the country raises a lot of fruits and vegetables. (Dried fruits being an export.) They make pilaf (rice-meat combination) but it is "just one of our dishes."

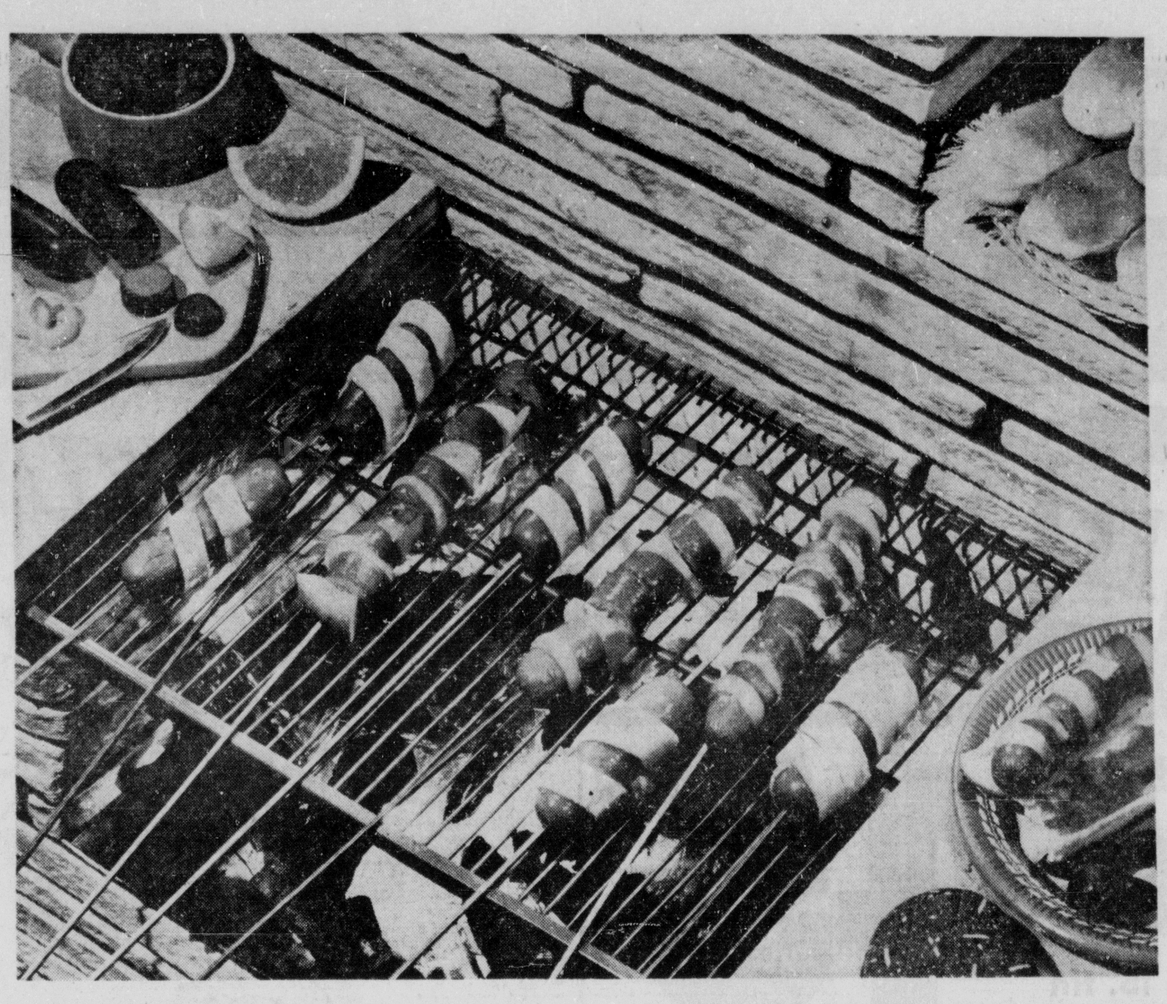
Sorry, we didn't get any recipes, but it seemed most unfair to borrow their attention from the Sausalito waterfront or the Japanese Tea Garden in Golden Gate Park when their time was so limited.

A major industry of mountainous (4,000 to 12,000 feet altitude) Afghanistan is the producer of caracul, or Persian lamb skins. According to the World Almanac, the country's major meat also is from sheep.

Afghanistani speak two languages, a native tongue called Pushtu and Persian. The country, with a population of 12 million, is bordered by Kabukistan Republic of the USSR on the north, Pakistan and parts of India on the East and Iran on the west.

The temperature in Kabul varies from about 24 degrees below zero in winter to 85 degrees in summer. But 30 miles' drive in winter brings one to warm orange groves, and 10 miles in summer takes one into the cool mountains.

Against this background, the future homemakers of Afghanistan are taught sewing, cooking, home management and child care. Judging from the two emissaries, who are here under U.S. State Dept. auspices, career wives are also a part of the new Afghanistan.



FRANKFURTERS, ETCETERA — That's the name of one of these off-beat barbecue creations. Actually, it's a frankfurter kabob with slides of onion (parboiled!) and apple. Frankfurter Twists are wrapped in strips of biscuit dough which bake up to be their own buns. The Etceteras are unskewered into hot dog rolls.

Franks, Etcetera—New Twist To Wieners Over The Charcoal

Contrary to popular opinion, "a la mode" doesn't mean "with ice cream" — it just means, in the latest style. Here are a couple of highly styled ways to fix skinless franks in your own backyard. You'll have the neighbors' eyes popping as well as their mouths watering.

FRANKFURTER TWISTS
(Serves 12)

Blend 2 cups biscuit mix with ⅔ cup milk to make a soft dough. Knead on lightly floured board and roll out to form a 9 x 12 inch rectangle. Spread dough with a mixture of 3 tablespoons chili sauce, 1 teaspoon horseradish and 2 teaspoons mustard. Cut dough carefully into 12 strips, about ¾ inch by a foot long.

Twist one strip diagonally around each skinless frankfurter, pinching dough at ends to seal it. Brush Frankfurter Twists with about ½ cup melted butter and toast slowly over glowing coals until dough is golden brown.

FRANKS, ETCETERA

Cut skinless frankfurters into one inch slices. Thread on long skewers between thick slices of parboiled onions and apple slices. Broil over coals, basting with the following sauce: ⅓ cup brown sugar, ½ teaspoon nutmeg, 2 tablespoons orange juice and 6 tablespoons melted butter.

Curried Pineapple

Curried pineapple goes well with fried chicken. Simply brush melted butter or margarine on drained pineapple slices. Dust curry powder lightly on top.

Pineapple Smoothie

For a cool inviting beverage on a warm day, serve Pineapple Smoothie: To make 3 tall servings, beat until just blended 2 cups of chilled pineapple juice, 2 tablespoons of fresh, frozen or canned lemon juice, pinch of salt and 1 pint of vanilla ice cream. This is delicious served with coconut chips or chunks of fresh coconut.

Try Cabbage Leaf From The Chinese

The Chinese approach to meat and vegetables applied to two everyday American foods makes them seem not everyday at all.

Ingredients: 2 tablespoons margarine, 1½ cups diced cooked pork, 2½ cups coarsely shredded green cabbage, ½ teaspoon sugar, 3 teaspoons (about) soy sauce.

Method: Melt butter in 10-inch skillet over low heat; add pork and brown lightly. Add cabbage; sprinkle with sugar and soy sauce; add soy sauce 1 teaspoon at a time because amount needed will depend on its strength; the dish should be lightly flavored.

Cover tightly; cook over very low heat, stirring a few times, just until cabbage is slightly wilted but still crisp.

Really! It Takes Six Hours To Mellow Baked Beans

No matter how many commercial products appear on the market, a true baked bean lover will be satisfied with nothing less than the old fashioned, long baked variety that Grandma used to make.

Grandma more than likely used honey in her baked beans. For honey baked with the beans for a good six hours gives them a lingering touch of sweetness that just softens the bland taste of the beans but does not mask their own good flavor.

Baking beans is really not the task it sounds that it would be. Once you have the routine set in your mind it becomes as automatic as making toast.. Your oven does the work.

HONEY BAKED BEANS

2 cups dried beans
½ pound scored salt pork
1 tablespoon onion, chopped
1 teaspoon ginger
½ cup Honey
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon dry mustard

Soaks washed beans in 4 cups warm water 3 hours. Cook on low heat in a tightly covered saucepan for 1¼ hours. Do not allow to boil. Drain the beans, saving the water. Place salt pork in the bottom of bean pot and add beans. Cover with mixture made of the bean water, onion, ginger, honey, salt and mustard. Add boiling water, if needed.

Place small pieces of salt pork on top, cover pot and bake in slow oven about 6 hours. Uncover the bean pot during the last hour of baking. If the beans become too dry, add a little boiling water. Serves 8.

Blazing Pineapple Jubilee Spectacular, But Not Rich

Add a touch of magic to your meal with Pineapple Jubilee. It's an impressive dessert that is not too rich and heavy. Drain one nine-ounce can of pineapple tidbits (buffet size), reserving syrup. To the syrup, add enough pineapple juice to make 2 cups. To this liquid, add ½ cup of corn syrup and place in blazer of chafing dish. Boil until volume is reduced almost one-half. Add pineapple tidbits and heat thoroughly. Pour one ounce of Jamaica rum over pineapple and ignite. Serve flaming over hard vanilla ice cream. This will make 4 generous servings. (If a chafing dish is not available, the sauce may be flamed at the table in a heat proof dish.)

A Macaroon Pie In Tenderest Crust

As for the shell, this might be the very one on which to take the advice of oldtime cooks who swear by lard for piecrust. None of the modern shortenings have managed to match this old-fashioned favorite.

But on to the kitchen!

COCONUT MACAROON PIE

1 unbaked 9-inch pie crust
3 eggs
1 cup sugar
1 cup corn sirup
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 cup coconut, chopped

Beat eggs well. Beat in sugar gradually. Stir in corn sirup, vanilla and coconut. Pour filling into unbaked pie crust. Bake in a moderate oven (350° F.) for 40 to 45 minutes.

Caper For Kiddies

Once in a while it's fun to appeal to childrens' imaginations by preparing food in a different manner. Use a cooky cutter to make an outline of an animal, star or tree on a mound of cottage cheese. Fill in the pattern with colorful canned fruit cocktail. It takes but a few minutes to prepare. Children are enchanted by such creations, and devour the food.

A Chewy Bar With Filberts And Coconut

Nut-filled Honey Bars are a chewy complement to a fruit compote for dessert, or try them in a lunch box. A hint of oraange, the sweetness of honey and the crunch of chocolate and filberts combine with extra-special flavor if you add a cuge of real butter.

There is probably nowhere butter makes more flavor difference than in cookies.

HONEY BARS

Ingredients: 1¼ cups sifted cake flour, ½ teaspoon double-acting baking powder, ⅛ teaspoon salt, 1 egg, ½ cup (¼ pound) butter or margarine, grated rind of 1 orange, ⅓ cup honey, 1 tablespoon milk, ¼ cup flaked coconut, ½ cup chopped filberts, ¼ cup (about) sifted confectioners' sugar.

Method: Sift together the cake flour, baking powder and salt. Beat egg until thick and pale colored.

Add sifted dry ingredients and beat gently until smooth. Fold in coconut and filberts. Turn into buttered baking pan (9x9 2 inches).

Bake in moderate (350 degrees) oven 20 minutes or until cake tester inserted in center come out clean. Place pan on wier rack to cool for about 5 minutes.

Cut in bars and remove with spatula; while still warm roll in confectioners' sugar.

Good Bye Quart

The familiar quart of ice cream has virtually disappeared. Today, most families prefer pints and half gallons for handy freezer storage, according to a leading ice cream firm.

PINEAPPLE PEPPER SLAW — Crisp cabbage, pineapple tidbits, strips of baked ham and imaginative seasoning give this salad he-manners be-fitting those occasions when the Man of the House tends grill.

HEARTY SLAW

This Salad Goes With Barbecues

Here's a delicious new salad that will team up well with baked beans casserole and rye or Vienna bread. It has the heartiness to blend with barbecue fare.

Pineapple chunks combined with green pepper slices, crisp green cabbage and thin strips of ham is a hearty salad and one that will brighten your patio table. If you use imagination in arranging salads, everyone will enjoy them more.

PINEAPPLE PEPPER SLAW

- 1 large head crisp green cabbage (or use part curly Savoy cabbage)
- 1 crisp green Bell pepper
- 1 teaspoon dry mustard
- 2 tablespoons vinegar
- 4 tablespoons sugar
- 1 teaspoon salt
- ½ cup mayonnaise
- 1½ cups canned pineapple chunks or tidbits
- ½ teaspoon caraway seeds
- Thin strips baked ham

Shred cabbage finely and crisp in ice water. Drain. (You should have 4 to 6 cups of shredded cabbage.) Slice half of green pepper into rings, dice rest of it. Mix mustard, vinegar, sugar and salt into mayonnaise. In large bowl, mix drained cabbage, diced green pepper and most of the pineapple.

Well-Traveled, Diplomatic Veal in Chinese Parley

With very little effort, veal can easily adapt to a special role in German, Italian, French and Oriental cookery. This is because of veal's delicious mild flavor.

CHINESE VEAL CASSEROLE

- 2 pounds boneless veal, cut in 1-inch cubes
- 1 can (4 ounces) mushrooms
- 3 tablespoons lard or drippings
- Water
- ½ teaspoon salt
- ⅛ teaspoon pepper
- 4 teaspoons soy sauce
- ½ cup diced onion
- ½ cup chopped green pepper
- 2 cups 1-inch pieces of celery
- ¼ cup enriched flour
- 1 can (4 ounces) Chinese noodles

Drain mushrooms and save liquid. Brown veal cubes in lard or drippings. Pour off drippings. Add mushroom liquid and enough water to make 1 cup liquid. Add salt, pepper, soy sauce, onion, green pepper, mushrooms and celery. Cover tightly and simmer 45 minutes.

Pour off liquid and add water to make 2 cups. Mix flour with ½ cup of liquid. Add liquid and flour mixture to veal and vegetables.

Cook, stirring constantly, until thickened. Pour mixture into a greased 2-quart casserole. Arrange noodles on casserole. Bake in a moderate oven (350° F.) 10 minutes. Yield: 6 to 8 servings.

Foil The Apple

If you want your baked apples to come out of the oven plump and juicy, wrap them in aluminum foil before putting them in the oven to bake. You will find they do not need to be basted when cooked in this manner.

Birthday Special

Do you have a smallfry birthday party coming up soon and no candle holders for the cake? Here's a solution. Soften the tip ends of tiny candles by holding them over a flame and stick the candles upright on Richardson's Party Patties. These flat, circular mints come in a variety of pastel colors and flavors that are good to eat as well as decorate a cake.

Delta Zeta Sorority To Hostess Institute

In conjunction with the Hearing Society of Marin's commemoration of Better Hearing Month in May, members of the Delta Zeta sorority Marin County alumnae chapter will hostess the two-day institute planned by the Society on May 19 and 20 at the Marin Art and Garden Center in Ross.

The alumnae, who have aided the Society in funds and volunteer work since its inception several years ago, will guide visitors around the Frances Young Art Gallery during the morning and afternoon programs on Tuesday and Wednesday. The morning forums are scheduled from 9:30 to 11:30 o'clock and the afternoons from 1:30 to 3:00 o'clock. A Tuesday evening panel discussion is scheduled to start at 8 o'clock.

As part of their observance of Better Hearing Month, the Delta Zetas recently presented a check in the amount of $370 to the Hearing Society, to be used in the organization's work with the hard-of-hearing and deaf in Marin. The proceeds were from the sorority's annual bridge-luncheon held in March.

Several Delta Zeta alumnae serve on the board of directors of the Hearing Society and participate in the volunteer program in the deaf class at the School for Handicapped Children at Marindale. Miss Slavka Cibilich of Corte Madera, is not only this year's chairman of the Better Hearing Month observance, but vice-president of the Society and the alumnae philanthropies chairman as well. Mrs. Victor Abrahamson of Sausalito is in her second year as secretary of the Society's board of directors.

Among those slated to hostess are Mesdames Robert Pritchard of Terra Linda; Peter Hansen of Novato; Robert Green and James Smith of Terra Linda; Guy Gale and Raymond Thompson of Sleepy Hollow; Robert Tanem and George Mallory of San Rafael; Earl Koehler of Lucas Valley.

PRESIDENT of Marin County Delta Zeta Alumnae, Mrs. Robert Pritchard smiles as she presents a check for $370.00 to Robert Praetzel, treasurer of the Hearing Society of Marin. The money which is part of the sorority observance of Better Hearing Month was raised at an annual bridge-luncheon in March.

MAY 22, 23

Poppy Days Plans Are Underway

Preparations for the annual observance of Poppy Days on the Friday and Saturday before Memorial Day, May 22 and 23, are being made by Units of the American Legion Auxiliary throughout the nation, reports received by Mrs. Ruth Monaghan, Poppy Chairman of Twin Cities Unit of the Auxiliary, show.

Millions of bright red poppies, made of crepe paper by disabled war veterans, are ready to be offered in honor of America's war dead. An estimated 150,000 Auxiliary members have volunteered to distribute the little flowers of memory on the streets in May.

Flowers to be offered here in Marin County by Twin Cities Unit in Larkspur, San Anselmo Unit, Mill Valley Unit and Bolinas Unit of the American Legion Auxiliary have been received from the Veterans' Home at Yountville. The poppies are accurate replicas of the wild poppies of France and Belgium which bloomed on the World War battlefield and cemeteries in those countries.

"The world first heard about the poppies in that famous poem, 'In Flanders Fields,' which described how they grew and bloomed 'between the crosses, row on row' in the battle cemeteries," Mrs. Monaghan explained. "They have been The American Legion and Auxiliary memorial flower ever since World War I.

Marion Bellamy To Commentate Auxiliary Show

Mrs. John B. Bellamy Jr., Rickey's Rancho Rafael fashion co-ordinator, will be guest for the Junior Social Service Auxiliary's fashion show luncheon on Wednesday, May 13, at the Meadow Club.

Mush in demand for her interesting comments on fashions, Marion Bellamy will be describing fashions from the Modern Eve Shop in San Rafael. Mr. Roberts of The Salon will create special hairdo's for the models. New glamor will be added to the models with special makeup by Beauty Counselor which will be applied by Counselor Mrs. Stephen Pinson. Wearing exciting shoes by Netboy's, the models will be carrying glasses by Physician's Optical Company.

Mrs. Clyde Jones, chairman, announced that sherry will be served from 12:30 to 1 p.m. Lunch will begin at 1 o'clock and the fashions will follow.

Salvage Sale Set May 14 In Mill Valley

Many fine bargains have been donated for the Mill Valley Episcopal Church of Our Saviour's annual salvage sale, which starts Thursday, May 14, according to co-chairmen Mrs. H. E. Houchard and Mrs. G. R. Brockman.

The sale, which will take place at the church located on Lovell and Old Mill Avenues, will continue through May 18 with hours from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., except the first day, when doors will be open until 8:30 p.m. All remaining items on hand at the close of the sale on Monday will go for half price.

Among good buys available, according to Mrs. Houchard, are clothing, furniture, golf clubs, lamps and shades, drapes, dishes, toys, a play pen, a high chair and rugs.

'GOLDEN MOMENTS'

Strauss Number Is To Open Ballet Aquacade On June 6, 7

The beautiful tones of Strauss waltzes will open this year's Ballet Aquacade to be given on the Roger Kent estate in Kentfield June 6 and 7 for the benefit of Marin General Hospital and Marin Junior Theater.

This first of 16 staged swim and dance numbers will be called "Golden Moments of Strauss" and shimmering golden yellow costumes will dazzle the poolside audiences on Saturday and Sunday afternoons at 2:30 o'clock.

Rehearsals have been underway for several weeks coached by Mrs. Edward T. Roddy and Mrs. Russell F. Dwyer. Sixteen of the 365 young girls participating in this 14th annual Ballet Aquacade will perform in this gala opening number. Mrs. Thomas E. Gilboy of Kentfield, swim director, is being assisted by a talented group of Marin women, who, usually in pairs, are rehearsing the swimmers and guiding them through their difficult routines twice weekly in fourteen private pools in Ross, Kentfield, and San Rafael.

Mrs. Gilboy's assistants include Mrs. Myron DuBain and Mrs. Kenneth D. Hildebrand who will coach an exotic Spanish number, and Mrs. L. N. Frater and Mrs. L. J. Simon who are readying the spectacular big "Neptune's Garden."

Anne Curtis Cuneo, former Olympic swimmer, is training "The Three Pearls" who, with Mrs. Gilboy's "Indian Maidens," will appear on the Swim Day program May 23 at the San Francisco Women's Athletic Club. Mrs. Terres A. Ronnenberg is in charge of the design and trim of swim suits.

Others assisting Mrs. Gilboy as coaches are Mesdames John Southmayd, Donald M. Dapprich, William B. Ryder Jr., F. A. Giesea, Roger Kane, William F. Hinkley, Percy D. McPartland, Hugh G. Marchant, Robert P. Praetzel, Charles E. Sayers, Walter V. Coberly, L. J. Dellwig, N. H. Karr, William L. Costa, Nessie M. Kelso, T. Bland Rogers and John Barrie Jr.

Tickets for the Ballet Aquacade go on sale this week and are being handled by many Marin merchants. The event is sponsored by the Ross-Kentfield-Greenbrae Unit of the Junior Theater of Marin.

Benchwarmers Set Sale On Saturday

The Benchwarmers rummage sale will be held from 9 to 5 p.m., Saturday, at the American Legion Hall in Mill Valley. The proceeds from the rummage sale will be used to buy equipment for the American Little League of Mill Valley.

The sale will feature a collection of vases and books as well as clothing and household articles, jewelry and knick-knacks.

Cake and coffee will be sold and a bake sale will be featured.

Donations to the sale can be taken to the home of Mrs. Claude Jones, 87 Sunnyside, Mill Valley or they will be picked up by calling Mrs. Frank Crist, Mill Valley.

CYO Play Day Set Saturday

Plans are being completed for the Annual Countywide CYO Play Day for girls sponsored by the Catholic Youth Organization.

The event is scheduled for Saturday, May 9, and will start at 10 p.m. at San Rafael High School.

CYO Girls Club members and their friends will participate in the activities which include races, games, and swimming.

Awards will be given individual girls and a trophy awarded to the club with the most points.

All CYO Girls Club members and their friends are invited and further information may be obtained from the County CYO office, 263 West End Avenue, San Rafael.

Dorcas Plans Apron Day, May Bazaar

May is an important month for the Dorcas Society of the Fairfax Congregational Community Church with several events calendared. The first meeting on May 12, which will begin with a 1:30 p.m. dessert luncheon, will be Apron Day. Members are to bring aprons they have made and these will be modeled. The aprons will be sold at the bazaar to be held on May 26. This will start at 10 a.m. with many articles on sale. A luncheon will be served and members and guests will play cards during the afternoon.

Hostesses for Apron Day will be Mesdames Albert C. Terkelsen, chairman, and I. M. Johnson and Louis J. Condrotte. Following the apron display, Mrs. Clarence J. Bergstrom, president, will conduct a short business meeting, then Mrs. Louis Dallara, program chairman, will introduce Benny Larson. He is a member of the training staff of Guide Dogs for the Blind and will show a motion picture, "The San Rafael Story" which shows the training of the guide dogs and their blind masters.

Wondering...

Which Polish for Which?

We're not fooling. Start with a copper bottom pan... and see how it cleans and what a brilliant shine you get with Brilliantshine. Now for brass. Brilliantshine gives lamps and door knobs a bright new look, too. And try it on stainless steel... on chrome and aluminum furniture and appliances. They'll come out bright as your smile. Easy? The back label on the bright, new Brilliantshine can shows you how easy. Look for it when you're shopping.

with this one can you can brilliantshine them all!

MADAME MELBA

Talent Recruited For Market Day

A mysterious figure called Madame Melba, billed as a "clairvoyant extraordinary," was added today to the array of talent recruited for Market Day, Wednesday, May 20, at the Marin Art and Garden Center in Ross.

Also added to the list of attractions were a photographer, "guessing booth," and stalls selling hand-freezer ice cream, root beer, candy and balloons. Chairmen are Mesdames Henry Skinner of Ross, photography; Robert Nelson and Charles Strom of San Rafael, guessing booth; Robert O. Cole of Ross, root beer; Charles Trost of Ross, candy and balloons.

These booths and many others will open at 11 a.m. Lunch will be served under the chairmanship of Mrs. Arthur Feidler of San Rafael and Mrs. Albert E. Wilson of Ross.

Typical of workshop days being held by Northgate Group members, sponsors of Market Day, are those of the gift booth committee. Members are Mesdames Winston Jones of Ross and L. W. Hollingsworth of Kentfield, co-chairmen; Harold Lang, San Anselmo; Walter Boland, Stinson Beach; Fred Galbreath and H. N. Hansen, Kentfield; J. Sheldon Potter and Stanley J. Steer, Ross; Richard Messenger, Greenbrae; Earl Pennington, Richard F. Tyler, William T. Bagley and Austin Cadle, San Rafael; K. Goodale, Sausalito, and George Lefthwich, Larkspur.

Another busy group is the "potting shed" committee, whose members are Mesdames Mert Hipsley of Ross, chairman; Bert Meek, San Rafael, co-chairman; Harold Schutte, Radford Hall, A. C. Daniels and Ben Morden, Ross; Fred Sloat and William Kapranos, San Anselmo; Horace Williams, San Rafael; Clifford Flack, Kentfield.

Items for the silent auction, always a popular booth, are being collected by a committee composed of Mesdames Robert E. Byard, Mill Valley; Robert Cary, Ross; Frank Newton, Kentfield; Rafael Dufficy, Jr., Vail Cliff and Archibald Simenstad, San Rafael.

Marin Moods Show Draws Large Crowd

The occasion, a family dessert-fashion show, was presented by the Women's Guild of the First Presbyterian Church of San Anselmo, under the direction of Mrs. Hans E. Fischel. Proceeds will go toward landscaping the front of the church sanctuary.

Pastel colored streamers covered the ceiling of the Fellowship Hall and were fashioned into individual maypoles on each table. Home-made cakes and coffee were served to the grownups while the children feasted on ice cream, cake and punch.

Fashions from three Marin stores were described in poetry by Mrs. John Bellamy Jr., and an appropriate song for each style was played on the piano by Mrs. Elmer Jones. Master of ceremonies, Brooks Dutt, introduced the entertainment which featured Jay Davis, a ventriloquist and "The Marinated Four," a quartet composed of Messrs. Robert Flanders, Hugh Harnsberger, Robert Johnson and Richard Kreuzer.

Welcome Wagon Club Plans Wine Tasting

The Welcome Wagon Club of Marin County will hold its monthly luncheon at 12 M. on Tuesday at Sabella's, and J. D. Stanton of the Wine Advisory Board, will present a film and speak on use of wine in cooking. Club members will also have the pleasure of tasting different wines.

Bridge and canasta will follow the luncheon. Residents of Marin County wishing to attend are asked to call Mrs. Robert Innes for reservations.

Sprig Of Spring

Spark plain gelatin with a little lemon juice and chopped fresh mint. Fold canned cling peaches into thickened gelatin for a refreshing springtime salad, one that's pretty as spring itself. If no fresh mint is available, use a drop or two of mint extract instead.

Outdoor Art Club To Fete New Members

New members will be honored at the May 14 day meeting of the Outdoor Art Club, and there will be election of officers, a garden and plant display and a short play to be presented by the drama section.

Mrs. Paul Hurd and Mrs. Mills Calahan are in charge of the non-competitive flower show and plant sale. Members have been urged to display their favorite home arrangements and cut specimens.

Mrs. Frederick Vandyke, chairman of the art section, will arrange a display of paintings, ceramics and other craft work, and Mrs. Stewart Bostwick is director of the play.

Camp Fire Girls Taught First Aid

An innovation for Camp Fire Girls is being experienced by Mrs. Ernest Kroner's Wa-Da-Ton-Eenas, who are receiving first aid instruction from the Eagle Scouts, Jack Meacham and Jack Martin. The boys are giving the Camp Fire Girls two sessions in basic first aid.

Among the girls receiving instruction are Claudia Bright, Jane Clark, Patty Creighton, Linda Jacobs, Pamela Kroner, Jill Martin, Carol Hayes and Karen Kraft.

Another project of this active group is the Mother's day tea planned for the meeting day before Mothers Day.

Strawberry Point P-TA Board Plans Meet This Evening

Continuing a policy inaugurated several years ago, officers and members of the Strawberry Point Parent Teacher Assn. board of directors will hold a joint meeting with those who have been elected and appointed for the coming year, at the school tonight at 8 o'clock.

Officers for 1959-60 will be: Dr. and Mrs. William L. Clarke, co-presidents; Mrs. I. D. Steinhart, vice president; Jack Neiger, second vice president; Mrs. Owen Avazian, secretary and Stanley Gallagher, treasurer.

Council representatives include Mesdames George Fay and Anshall Nelson and Mr. E. T. Koski, school board; Mesdames M. H. Marlow and Edward Smith, Education Council; Mesdames J. W. Binkley and A. Marchini, P-TA Council and Mr. and Mrs. John Gobershock, Institutional Representatives.

Committee chairmen are Dr. and Mrs. I. D. Steinhardt, program; Mrs. Nelson, parliamentarian; Dore Schwab, legislation; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Duffin, public relations and publicity; Mrs. Charles Drolla, membership and magazine; Mrs. Roy Eldred, health and safety; Mrs. Arthur R. Senter, room representatives; Mes-Emery Dowell and James Sullivan, tea chairmen; Mrs. E. T. Koski, hospitality.

Other committee heads are: Mrs. Hugh Cregg, movie and TV; Mesdames Vincent Kelley and H. E. Roberts, library; Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Bush, recreation; Mrs. E. L. Muszynski, communications; Mrs. N. L. Petrakis, historian, and Col. and Mrs. Kelly, Mrs. Kal Lines and Mr. and Mrs. James Watson, ways and means.

Marin League Unit Meets In Hart Home

Chairman for the coming year is Mrs. Richard Hartshorne of Kentfield. Vice chairman is Mrs. Charles Secor of Larkspur; Mrs. George Faulkner Jr. of Ross will serve as treasurer for the final year of her two-year term. The recording secretary is Mrs. Robert Danielson of San Anselmo, and corresponding secretary, Mrs. G. Stanleigh Arnold of Kentfield.

Other members of the board, as announced by Mrs. Hartshorne are as follows: Mesdames Walter Busse Jr., placement; Lafayette Harter Jr., projects; Huntley Bennett, education; David Plant, hospitality; George Hart, transfers; Richard Newell, Next-to-New-Shop; William Milliken, sustaining; Dohrmann K. Pischel, publicity.

Appointed as representatives to serve on the boards of the Marin Unit's financially supported projects are: Mrs. John Manwaring, Family Service Agency, and Mrs. Harold Rooks, Youth Orchestra and Marin Symphony Guild.

Mrs. Hartshorne, originally a transfer from the Honolulu Junior League, has been active in the Marin Unit for the past five years. She has held various board positions in the community as well as within the Unit. Most recently she has been a board representative to the Marin Council of Community Services.

Court St. Raphael Praised For Work

At the annual communion breakfast of Court St. Raphael No. 1406 at Rickey's Rancho Rafael on Sunday, the Rev. James E. Cain, the chaplain, was the speaker. He told of the splendid work of the court and its assistance to St. Raphael's Church and parish. The court gave a stained glass window to the church and started the gift shop and library in the mission. Many books were also donated by members to the library.

Mrs. William Slattering, grand regent, presented Father Cain with a check for a church project.

Mrs. Antoinette Cerasi, district deputy, also commended the court for its work and told of its progress.

Honors Bestowed On Mill Valley AAUW

Honors have come to the Mill Valley Branch of the American Assn. of University Women by way of an invitation for the branch to present "Alma Mater and Her Daughter," an original play researched and written by Mrs. Kenneth A. Pratt, at the state AAUW convention in Los Angeles on Friday.

The play, a dramatic reading which requires but one rehearsal and few props for presentation, grew from the question "What was in the air the last century to make girls want so much to go to college in spite of the things that were said, and the doors that were closed?"

To get the answer Mrs. Pratt, currently serving as branch fellowship chairman, probed into old letters, biographies and school histories. The result provides a half hour of informative entertainment and is appropriate for presentation for AAUW groups, P-TA groups, alumnae clubs and high school girls interested in attending college.

Other branch members in addition to Mrs. Pratt appearing in the cast will be Mesdames Leonard Downing, John B. Norall, Viking Leon, Frank L. Smith and Paul Hwochinsky.

Proceeds from the sale of copies of the play will benefit the national AAUW fellowship program. This program provides financial assistance to American and foreign women scholars wishing to pursue their education on the post-graduate level both in this country and abroad.

Mrs. Joseph C. Brewster and Mrs. Leon, branch president-elect and second vice president and program chairman-elect, respectively will represent the branch as voting delegates to the convention.

Methodist Women Plan Luncheon On 'Hats' Theme

It is time once again for the annual Spring Luncheon of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the San Rafael Methodist Church. The theme chosen for this year is "Crazy Hats." Everyone attending is to wear a crazy hat of their own design. Prizes wll be awarded for the hats of questionable distinction.

The luncheon will be held in Turley Hall at 12 o'clock on Wednesday, May 20. Tickets are available from any member of the Woman's Society and reservations should be made before May 15.

Mrs. James Turner is general chairman of the luncheon. Committee chairmen are as follows: Mesdames Frank Wesel, decorations; Earl Stover, clean up; Moffett Rhodes, tables; Robert Woodhurst, luncheon.

Entertainment will be by Mrs. Robert Merritt, author and lecturer, who has spent many years in Okinawa. She now lives at Hamilton Field with her daughter and husband, Major Merritt.

LONG BEACH

Lodges Will Hold Meet, May 17-22

Mill Valley Odd Fellows and Rebekahs will participate in the 107th Odd Fellows Grand Lodge and the 69th Rebekah Assembly session to be held in Long Beach May 17 through May 22.

Activities slated for the week will include a mardi gras street parade and celebration with an international theme on May 18. Floats, decorated cars, marching and musical units will be entered from the entire state.

A governor's banquet and ball will highlight May 19 activities, with governors of California, Oregon, Nevada, Arizona and Hawaii as honored guests. A representative of the president of the United States will be present, and state Senator Randolph Collier, Yreka, will be master of ceremonies. Also present will be international leaders of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, and representatives of the United States military and naval personnel.

May 20 will include attendance at the Lawrence Welk TV show, a donkey basketball game and tours of Disneyland, Knotts Berry Farm and Marineland.

A testimonial banquet in honor of sovereign grand warden Gene J. Bianchi of Oakdale will be held on Sunday, May 17. Bianchi will assume the international leadership of the order in 1960.

Concluding the week's activities will be the formal installation of Robert Tuttle, Ukiah, and Mrs. John McFarlane, Martinez, as the new state leaders of Odd Fellows and Rebekahs.

Sunny Days Specials

Good weather and big appetites run hand-in-hand and really keep mother hopping about the kitchen. Sometimes it seems that the food budget takes an awful whipping all at once. Bon Air planning is devised to relieve both of these less desirable features. First —we feature many easy to prepare items in standard food stuffs, meats and frozen foods. Easy to fix so that mother can get out and enjoy extra sun-time, too. And all just as tasty and good for you as any foods you can find. Second—Sunny Day Specials will take up the slack in the budget and hold your costs within reason. Bon Air contracts for Sunny Day foods before the season arrives and regardless of higher summer markets—Bon Air shines in the money saving department.

Though this is Douglas Drake's our alto ego's, 8th Birthday . . . we've furnished food products to Marin for 24 years. We're proud that our regular customers now include a second generation. Perhaps the greatest self-satisfaction is our crew. Our manager, Gerry Braemer, has been a fellow worker for 22 years and a top food man. With Pete, our produce manager, we boast the two best produce men in the county. Our entire crew are not only good food men — but the most helpful, courteous, cheerful group we've ever had in one store. We'll back them as best against any other crew in the state. We'll write a comment or two under their pictures — so you'll know them better.

Chessman Files Brief With Court

Convict-author Caryl Chessman filed a personally prepared final brief Monday in San Francisco with the state Supreme Court, which is scheduled to review his trial manuscript in Los Angeles on June 8.

Chessman, who has spent more than 10 years in Death Row at San Quentin Prison, offered numerous contentions in the 317-page brief as to why he should be freed.

2. The Supreme Court could not legally review his case because its members are disobeying a law provision which requires them to reside in Sacramento.

3. Supreme Court Justice B. Ray Schaeur was biased.

Audubon Club Board Named

Marin Audubon Society members chose directors for the coming year at their meeting Friday night at College of Marin. The directors will appoint officers at the board meeting May 19.

Serving as directors will be Otis H. Smith of Larkspur, who is outgoing president; Mary Westwood, Dr. Herman Schwartz, Dr. and Mrs. C. K. Terwilliger, and Dr. Robert C. West of Mill Valley; Mrs. William R. Allison of Samuel P. Taylor State Park; Mr. and Mrs. B. K. Dunshee of Ross, Dr. William R. Eastman Jr. and Loreta Pacheco of San Rafael; Dr. Dorothy L. Morse of Corte Madera; Dr. L. Martin Griffin Jr. of Kent Woodlands and Martha McCoy of Novato.

Plans were made for an early morning excursion to the Tocaloma vicinity May 23 to hear the "dawn choir," or the early singing of the birds.

The organization's next meeting will be held June 5, contrary to a statement in the Independent-Journal last week which said it would not meet again until September. No meetings will be held in July and August.

Oregon Wants Marin Suspect

Drunken driving suspect Merrill Lin Bartholomew, 18, of 777 Del Ganado, Terra Linda, was bailed out of Marin County Jail at 3 p.m. Monday.

Two hours later, police in Medford, Ore., telephoned the sheriff to report Bartholomew was wanted there for grand larceny. Sheriff's Deputies Edward McKamey and William McKillop went to his home and booked him again at 6:30 Monday night.

Bartholomew is being held in lieu of $1,500 bail on the Oregon warrant of arrest. The youth had been caught Sunday on suspicion of drunken driving.

Trouble Blows In

SAVANNAH, Ga. (AP) — Jacob Lee's nose cost him $100 in superior court. While waiting to testify, Lee pulled out his handkerchief. Five lottery tickets fluttered out of the pocket. A policeman saw the whole thing and Lee pleaded guilty to possessing lottery tickets. He paid a $100 fine.

CRADLES KEEP SPINE STRAIGHT, SAYS EXPERT

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (UPI) —Babies would be healthier today if the old-fashioned rocking cradle were revived, a group of chiropractors meeting here were told.

Every baby gets bumps and falls which cause misalignments in the spine, Dr. Vinton F. Logan, president of the Logan School of Chiropractry in St. Louis, Mo., said. Such misalignments can cause illness.

"But back and forth motion of a rocking cradle has a tendency to settle everything back into place and thereby keep the little one healthier," he said.

3 Turncoats Ask Pay For Time In China

MONTEREL (UPI) — Three turncoats of the Korean War have filed claims seeking back pay from the U. S. government for the time they spent in Communist China.

The former U. S. soldiers are Otho G. Bell, Olympia, Wash.; William A. Cowart, of Georgia, and Lewis W. Briggs, of Texas.

They were captured during 1950-51 in Korea and were not discharged by the U. S. Army until 1954. The three men claim they were entitled to pay until the time of their discharges.

Although the three went over to the Communists when they had a chance to come home after the war, they contend that it never has been established that the army can deprive a soldier of his pay for misconduct.

8 Tamites To Stanford

Eight Tamalpais High School students, compared to four last year, have been accepted by Stanford University this year.

The students, all boys, are Dave Robertson, star basketball player; John Atkisson, student body president; Tim Farrell, past student body president; Ken Drexler, National Merit Scholarship Federation finalist; Ed Carlson, sports editor on the 1958 yearbook; Bob Watkins, leading Tam swimmer; Mike Harrison, student body vice president, and Steve Lieberman, winner of a California State scholarship.

Taxing Ride

STAMFORD, Conn. (UPI) — A passenger on a train from Boston to New York is charged a five per cent meal tax if he pays his dining car bill in Massachusetts, a three per cent sales tax if he's in Rhode Island or Connecticut, nothing at all in Westchester County, N.Y., and three per cent in New York City.

Marin Fiesta Books 2 Top-Notch Singers

Top-flight entertainment is in store at Marin Catholic High School's Marin Fiesta on May 23 and 24, announced Mrs. Alex Bovee of San Rafael, entertainment chairman.

Joan Hill, who will appear in this summer's San Francisco Light Opera productions, and Allan Cole, baritone and master of ceremonies who juggles San Francisco television appearances with his studies at University of San Francisco, are scheduled to sing duets during the two-day Marin Catholic money-making event.

They will be accompanied by Lorraine Mellin of San Anselmo, a pianist and music coach.

Other entertainment planned will include band music, singing of troubadours, variety entertainment and s p e c i a l events for younger children and for teen-agers.

"There'll be something going on almost all the time," said Mrs. Bovee.

Bridge Match Begins Friday

The fourth annual Marin sectional bridge tourney will start at 1:30 p.m. Friday and continue through Sunday evening at Bermuda Palms under auspices of the Marin unit of the American Contract Bridge League.

Dr. C. F. Crossley, Jr., unit chairman and president of the Western Conference of the American Contract Bridge League, said today at least 500 persons are expected for the tournament.

The tourney will include open pairs, mixed pairs, junior, masters pairs and team-of-four championships.

Facilities will be provided persons, even beginners, to play bridge even if they do not wish to enter tourney competition, Crossley said.

Speech Therapy Program Slated

A summer speech therapy program for children and adults with speech difficulties will be offered from July 6 to Aug. 14 at Arequipa Center by the Marin County Society for Crippled Children and Adults.

Mrs. John B. Ehlen therapy committee chairman, said last year's successful pilot program of group sessions has been expanded to provide private therapy for adults as well as children. Details may be obtained by writing Arequipa Center, Box 424, Fairfax.

'Is It Possible For A Poor Reader To Have High IQ? Asks Mother

"Is it possible for a poor reader to have a high I.Q.?" a mother asks. "Do I.Q's ever change? I'm sick with worry over my daughter. She's in the third grade. She reads poorly. Her kindergarten teacher tested her and said she was very bright. Now we think she must be dull. What's the good of I.Q. tests anyway?"

I.Q. or Intelligence Quotient, is a measure of mental ability. Intelligence tests are valuable, but the scores can be stressed too much. Many schools are guilty.

A few very bright children read poorly. They may have eyesight troubles. They may not hear well. Their health may be bad. They may be too aggressive, or too frightened. Intelligence isn't the only factor important in reading. I.Q.'s can change. Usually they don't, but it's possible. Move a forlorn little girl from an orphanage into a home where she is loved and her I.Q. will go up. Put her back in the orphanage and her I.Q. will drop. Big changes are rare. But they occur.

There's a catch to the intelligence tests most schools use. They are given group tests, given to a whole room full of children at once. They depend on reading ability. A slow reader gets a low score, even if he is bright. I.Q.'s based on group tests may be 10 to 20 points off. Individual tests are much better. Probably they're not more than two or three points off.

Will you go to a psychologist? There are several on the faculty of your nearest college. Have one of them give an individual intelligence test to your girl. Be sure the information he gains is passed on to her teacher. Don't conclude your girl is dull just because she reads poorly.

Supervisors Tour Tiburon Tract

The Marin County Board of Supervisors yesterday approved exceptions to the subdivision ordinance for Golden View Heights in Tiburon, but not until after it spent a hour on the site inspecting proposed street widths.

The exceptions had been approved by the Marin County Planning Commission, but Public Works Director Marvin W. Brigham did not agree.

After a long discussion among Brigham, members of the board and Douglas M. Christensen, who plans duplexes in the area, the board decided to have a look.

The planners had approved these exceptions:

A 30-foot right of way on Linda Vista avenue in place of the 40 required by the ordinance; paving of only 20 feet on Linda Vista; no improvements on Mar East; no sidewalks; grades up to 17½ per cent on Linda Vista.

Christensen said the 2.19 acres near Lyford Cove is steep and rocky and impossible for construction of wider roads without ruining the lot sizes. The area contains the old "Rhine Castle."

Brigham said he wanted to stick to the law.

The board, after its inspection, approved the 30-foot right of way for Linda Vista for a distance of 120 feet; paving on the street to be 24 feet wide, and approved the other planner recommendations.

1. Made these appointments: Gladys Comstock, intermediate typist clerk in the county clerk's office at $281 a month; Geraldine Ahern, junior stenographer clerk in the auditor-controller office at $255; Robert T. Tomczak, group supervisor, probation department, $395; William A. Bonini, maintenance man, $325, and Margaret J. Lyons, account clerk, $295, in the department of public works.

2. Promoted Martha E. George from typist clerk to account clerk in the auditor-controller office, a raise from $295 to $310 a month.

3. Referred to the public works department a request from the Tamalpais Valley Improvement Club for inclusion in the Tamalpais Valley master plan of widening of Northern and Marin avenues.

4. Passed a resolution accepting work on the Morning Sun avenue improvement project in Mill Valley.

5. Voted to reappoint Norman Ford to the Bolinas Fire Protection District board to serve until the election in April, 1962.

6. Voted to spend $880 for safety belts and hooks for the safety of window washers at the courthouse.

7. Called for a June 9 bid opening on a $20,000 bond issue of Reed Union School District.

8. Opposed changing state highway expenditure north-to-south ratio from 45-55 to 40-60. The board also opposed a bill to pay rapid transit district directors for attendance at committee meetings as well as board meetings.

9. Approved a tentative map of Muir Meadows in Tamalpais Valley subject to work between the subdivider and the department of public works on the width of Lupine way.

10. Approved the final map of Mariner Oaks in Tiburon subject to an agreement on the placement of two fire hydrants.

FIRE SEASON HERE STARTS ON MAY 18

The 1959 fire season starts officially on Monday, May 18.

After that date, no open fires will be permitted in the unincorporated areas under jurisdiction of the Marin County Fire Department, Chief Charles R. Reilley announced today.

Property owners are urged to finish burning trash and garden cutting before May 18, Reilley said, as after that date, incinerators and barbecues must be inspected and a permit obtained from the fire department.

State Faces Big Forest Fire Threat

LOS ANGELES (AP)—California faces the potentially most hazardous brush-forest fire year of its history.

This warning came yesterday from Grant Morse, an official of the U.S. Forest Service, at a meeting of businessmen.

Morse said the long dry period may bring a worse fire year than 1955, most disastrous on record. In that year 460,000 acres were burned.

He said there is a low moisture content in the soil and a fire-cracker-like dryness in brush and timber. And the worst factor is the unlikelihood of any substantial moisture until next fall. Morse said brush is as dry now as it normally is in September.

California State Forester Francis H. Raymond said the 1959 fire season is already 300 per cent ahead of the average season in the number of fires which have occurred.

Marin Pianist To Play In Berkeley

David Del Tredici of San Anselmo will appear with the University of California symphony orchestra as a piano soloist at 8:30 p.m. May 18 in the university's Hertz Memorial Hall in Berkeley.

He will be heard in Brahms' Piano Concerto No. 1 in D Minor.

The program is part of a week-long May festival of music presented by the Department of Music and the Committee on Drama, Lectures and Music at the university.

Stinson Beach Club To Discuss Schools

Tonight's monthly meeting of the Stinson Beach Progressive Club will consist of a discussion of the school budget situation and the impending school election, May 19, when voters will decide on a proposal to increase the school district tax rate.

The meeting will be held in the Stinson Beach Community Center at 8 p.m. according to Mrs. Ada Marble, secretary.

Officers Elected By Novato Forum

Nathan Schafler, who has been serving as temporary chairman of the Novato Forum, has been elected permanent chairman.

Other officers elected are Ernest Schallinger, vice chairman; Mrs. Raymond Johnson, secretary; Mrs. Helen Pedrazzini, alternate secretary; Charles Adkins, treasurer; Mrs. Paul O'Rourke, program coordinator, and Mrs. Charles Johnson, assistant program coordinator.

The forum also adopted a set of bylaws, and voted to exchange bylaws with the Novato Community Club, for both groups to study in their consideration of whether the Forum should affiliate with the community club.

Church Boosts Sausalito Building

A building permit for Sausalito's new Star of the Sea Catholic Church for $211,000 brought last month's city building permits to a grand total of $284,094, according to Building Inspector William Hynes.

Measure Licenses Drivers At 16

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Gov. Edmund G. Brown has signed into law a bill permitting youngsters to obtain driving instruction permits at 15½ years of age and a license at 16.

Under terms of the new law, a minor can obtain a license when under 16-years-old if he has completed "behind the wheel" driver-training instruction.

A beautiful Bel Air 4-dr. with every extra possible on it. Powerglide, power steering, radio, heater to mention a few. Two tone blue. Matching spotless interior that doesn't show any wear at all. 15,000 actual miles. Owner wanted a heavier car and switched to the new Buick. Original tires on the car have around 5,000 miles left on them before they get smooth enough to replace. We'll either put on a brand new set now or wait until they become smooth then replace them with a new set. $475 plus the tax will handle the down payment.

A ROYAL HONOR—"King Fuddle," the animated puppet whose voice and actions are provided by ventriloquist "Skipper" Bruce Sedley, greets Wendy Wills and Cathy Sommer who obtained His Highness's word that he will attend the Country Fair at Santa Margarita School May 23. Skipper Sedley promised he will come along. (Independent-Journal photo)

TV Academy Gives Emmy Awards Tonight

Scores of video stars will be competing for gold statuettes in a nationally televised 1½-hour show during which 26 of 42 Emmys will be distributed among assorted cowboys, detectives, leading ladies, directors and programs.

190 NOMINEES

More than 190 nominees—including some performers and shows which have been dropped—are in the Emmy derby which beams tonight at 10 p.m. PDT on KRON (Channel 4).

In addition to the winners and stars in the audience, televiewers will be entertained by a flock of "presenters," including a number of politicians from the nation's capital.

Vice President Richard M. Nixon, along with Sen. Mike Mansfield (D-Mont.), Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson, John C. Doerfer, chairman of the Federal Communications Commission, and Speaker of the House Sam Rayburn will distribute news and public service awards in a segment originating in Washington.

NEW YORK CREW

Hollywood will be responsible for the bulk of the evening's entertainment and presentations. Robert Young, Peter Ustinov, James Garner, Dinah Shore, Donna Reed, Walter Brennan, Jack Benny, Shirley Temple and Ann Sothern make up the presenters.

Bob Hope, still recovering from a blood clot in his left eye, will be given a special award for "bringing the great gift of laughter to all peoples of all nations."

Most coveted of the awards is the one for most outstanding single program of the year with "Child of Our Time" and "The Old Man" (both Playhouse 90), "An Evening With Fred Astaire" and "Little Moon of Alban" (Hallmark Hall of Fame) in the competition.

In an effort to prevent the hot western trend from stampeding the dramatic series category, a special Emmy will be awarded the best horse opera.

TV Dog Star To Appear In Marinwood

Rin-Tin-Tin and his master, Frank V. Barnes, will appear in Marinwood Sunday, as well as at the Marin County Humane Society.

Mel L. Morse, Humane Society manager, said today the canine television star will be taken to the Silveira School for an exhibition on the basketball court at noon Sunday, in connection with the Marinwood Mothers Day Carnival.

Mrs. Richard L. Shirley, chairman of the carnival, invited Barnes and his dog star to also attend the pancake breakfast that will open the carnival.

"Rinty" and his master will appear at the Humane Society shelter Saturday and Sunday in connection with opening of "Be Kind to Animals Week." They are to present exhibitions at 2 p.m.

MUSIC TO HAVE TEETH PULLED BY

Dr. Edwin Sturgis, president of the Massachusetts Dental Society, told the group's annual meeting yesterday teeth have been extraced with no other pain killer than a process called "audio analgesia."

He said receivers are put over the patient's ears and he selects the music from a tape recorder, regulating the volume himself. The recorder also simultaneously transmits a noise like the distant roar of Niagara Falls.

TV Puppet, Pal To Be At Country Fair

"Skipper" Bruce Sedley and his life-sized puppet, "King Fuddle," who star together on Sedley's daily afternoon television shows for children, will make an appearance at the "Country Fair" to be presented by the Terra Linda Parents Group May 23 at Santa Margarita School.

Sedley will give two shows, one at 10 a.m. and one at 11:15 a.m. The carnival itself will start at 11 a.m. and continue until 5 p.m.

The fair will raise funds for Terra Linda Schools and for the Lipa City College, an academic and trade school 60 miles from Manila, the Philippines.

The event is being arranged by a committee headed by Mrs. Eward Wills and Mrs. Peter S. Sommer Jr. Their daughters, Cathy Sommer, 6, and Wendy Wills, 7, recently called on the television personality to issue a personal invitation to the fair. He—and his noble puppet—accepted.

Henry Smith, principal of Santa Margarita, and Charles Skutt, principal of Bernard Hoffman School, both have compiled a report on the books and printed material that will be sent to the overseas college with funds raised at the fair, said Mrs. Sommer.

The school, she said, depends entirely on profits made on items manufactured and sold by its vocational students. Items made at the college will be on display at the fair.

Cove Players Announce Cast

The Cove Players have reached into the fields of radio and television for the actor and actress to play the leads in their June performances of "A Ghost of a Chance" at the Tiburon Playhouse.

The leading feminine role of the ghost-lady Harriet will be portrayed by Mrs. Dan Bonfigli of Rolling Hills, Tiburon. She is known to radio and TV fans as Dorris Carr.

Jim Lange, a resident of Lucas Valley and master of ceremonies of an afternoon and morning show on radio station KGO, will play the American who inherits an English castle, George Catherwood.

Both Lange and Miss Carr are newcomers to the amateur theater, as is Jim's wife, Faye, who will take the part of Ellen Simpson, fiance of Catherwood's son. The role of the son, Roland, will be played by James Sullivan of Strawberry.

Lawrence Lee, a Daly City resident, will play Major Simpson, Ellen's father. George Catherwood's wife, Susan, will be portrayed by Dulce O'Neil of Stinson Beach.

Brian T. H. Rowlands of Sausalito, a veteran of Cove Players and Sausalito Little Theater productions, will be Jelliby, the English caretaker.

The two ghost serving maids will be characterized by Mrs. Kirby Atterbury of Belvedere and Norma Christian of Sausalito. Mrs. Jeanne Kittredge of Hawthorne Terrace is the nurse.

The play, written and directed by Cove Players' Dan Totheroh, will be presented on Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights of two successive weekends beginning June 11, according to William J. Carter, Cove Players president.

Curfew Law On Mill Valley Agenda

Adoption of Mill Valley's strengthened curfew ordinance and a supplementary measure controlling the carrying of weapons are among the items on the agenda for tonight's Mill Valley City Council meeting.

The curfew ordinance forbids loitering by minors under 18 between 11 p.m. and sunrise.

Also on the agenda are a report of special attorney Eugene K. Sturgis on the Bolsa Avenue Assessment District and committee recommendations on beautification of Lytton Square and Miller avenue.

College Students Elect Marinite

Richard Hill, 21, of 1 Owlswood drive, Larkspur, will be student body president of San Jose State College for next year.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Hill, the youth is a junior at the college, where he is taking a pre-legal course.

Radio Panel To Air Use Of Net Depot

Radio Station KTIM's "Marin Sounding Board" will discuss the question of whether the Tiburon Naval Net Depot should be used for recreational purposes or private enterprise during tomorrow's 9 to 10 a.m. broadcast.

Kitty Oppenheimer, moderator, announced panelists will be Mrs. Margaret Azevedo, county planning commissioner, Mrs. Mary Summers, county planning director, and two members of the Paradise Property Owners Assn., Dr. Fenimore Cady Jr. and Alvin Land.

Questions telephoned to KTIM during the broadcast will be given to the panel. A tape recording of the program will be broadcast at 12:30 p.m. Sunday.

LAW IN ACTION

3 Government Branches Overlap In Some Ways

(This column, prepared by California lawyers, appears regularly in the Independent-Journal.)

Our government works through three basic departments in a system of checks and balances: The legislative makes the law; the executive carries it out; and the judicial interprets it, but with some overlap no matter how we try to separate the three powers.

Many people believe the government's creative powers lie with the law makers—the Congress in Washington and the Legislature in Sacramento.

The Legislature cannot give up its power to others, but it can give boards and agencies discretion to make rules and handle affairs within the limits set by the law.

A board cannot make any rules it wants, but must meet the clear test set for the agencies or officers to carry out the Legislature's purpose. In making regulations, a board may get power to "fill in the details" to make the law work out as the Legislature meant it to.

Some of these rules have criminal or civil sanctions.

A board might hold hearings, revoke or suspend licenses, and impose penalties. Administrative agencies find facts and reach decisions. These facts and decisions are for the most part subject to court review.

For example, the Vehicle Code sets forth how one should operate a car, and the Department of Motor Vehicles fills in the details by rules left out of the code. The same is true for most other boards and agencies such as the Medical Board, Federal Communications Commission, Internal Revenue, Franchise Tax Board, or National Labor Relations Board.

Here's a picture for the person who looks at an abstract painting and says "I could do better with one hand tied behind me." William Morris of Los Angeles, now painting in Copenhagen, Denmark, goes one better—he doesn't use hand at all, he uses his feet. Morris calls this "action expressionism."

Tourist Center Envisioned

This project is being launched by the Greater San Rafael Chamber of Commerce, whose manager, Richard L. Shirley, has received approval of his idea from District 4 of the State Division of Highways.

The plan, now in the embryonic stage, envisions a redwood building with large windows at Vista Point where tourists may obtain all Empire data desired.

Should the project materialize, Shirley stresses, there will be no commercialism or sales of any sort on the premises.

Final project approval will come from the Presidio of San Francisco. But that can not be obtained, Shirley explains, until the commanding general is shown the "package deal," including construction plans, operators and maintenance arrangements.

Various business firms and booster organizations will be asked to cooperate in the plans, Shirley said.

Civic organizations, as well as commissions and county boards of supervisors will be asked to cooperate within the ensuing months, Shirley said. Various state deaprtments also will be consulted.

"Probably," he pointed out, "the project when finished will be turned over to the Redwood Empire Assn. for operation."

San Geronimo Survey Delayed

A survey for a San Geronimo Valley master plan will be delayed for several months, the Marin County Planning Commission has indicated.

Mrs. Mary Summers, county planning director, reported the planning staff's workload will preclude an immediate start on the survey, which has been authorized by the board of supervisors.

Pre-Festival Cattle Auction Set Saturday

The traditional cattle auction held a week preceding the annual Sausalito Holy Ghost Festival will take place Saturday at 1 p.m. at the old "Slaughter House" behind the American Distilling Co. property, according to Manuel Brazil, president of the IDESST, sponsor of the event.

Dairy ranchers in the area have donated animals for the event. The cattle will be prepared by a Petaluma slaughter house and the meat hung in preparation for the feast to be held at the Sausalito lodge hall the following weekend.

Brazil said that last year, more than 2,500 meals were served to lodge members and their friends.

Many calves donated will be taken to Sausalito where members of the lodge and their friends will bid on them, but turn them back for re-bidding. "This becomes a large source of income for us," commented Brazil.

He said it is customary for the first calf auctioned to bring up to $1,000 due to the fact that it is "resold" perhaps 50 times. Others during the day may bring only $10 but the animals are turned back. When the auction is completed, Brazil, a cattle buyer, turns the animals over to a professional buyer for final resale.

Auctioneers at the Saturday event will be Louis Ricci of Kenwood, Herbert Widger of Napa, Manuel Perry of Petaluma, and Del Stonebrenner of Santa Rosa.

A luncheon will precede the auction, Brazil said.

Suspect Admits Lesser Offense

Cameron Loessberg, 22-year-old traveling salesman accused of seducing a 16-year-old San Rafael girl last February, pleaded guilty yesterday to contributing to the delinquency of a minor.

Loessberg, arrested in Oceanside where he was working as truck driver, was originally accused of statutory rape. But yesterday the rape charge was dropped when he admitted the lesser offense.

Judge Thomas F. Keating set June 1 as date for sentencing.

Tiburon Cove Master Plan Action Pends

Selection of a master plan for the Tiburon Cove yacht harbor may be made May 18 by the Marin County Planning Commission.

The commissioners held the first meeting on two proposed plans Monday afternoon but took no action as two hearings are required on such matters.

Monday discussion centered around the question of open access to the bay by small property owners, effect of a breakwater or fill on the channel if the Army Corps of Engineers constructs a channel, and plans of Milton Tonini of Ross for a 90-berth harbor.

Northwestern Pacific Railroad representatives maintained property owners on lower Main street had open access and their pathway to the water was not blocked.

In a staff report concerning the Tononi proposal, commissioners were informed the plan would cut an historical deep-water channel, would necessitate the dredging of a new one, and would block natural tidal scouring action through this channel and possibly result in disastrous silting of Tiburon and Belvedere Coves.

A more detailed analysis and recommendations were promised the commission at its May 18 meeting.

The commission granted the application of the Corinthian Yacht Club for construction of a piling bulkhead, fill and surfacing, to provide a 40-car off-street parking lot on part of its property on the water side of Main street near the old bank building.

2,000 LETTERS

Sausalitans Told Of Valuation Changes

About 2,000 letters are being mailed this week to Sausalito property owners, notifying them of changes in assessed valuations for the 1959-60 tax year.

County Assessor Bert W. Broemmel announced that reappraisal of properties in the Sausalito School District has just been completed under a continuing program to update the countywide reappraisal completed in April of last year.

For the convenience of Sausalito property owners who have questions concerning changes in assessments, Broemmel will set up a staff at the Sausalito City Hall to meet the public next Monday and Tuesday. The appraisers with records will be there from 2 to 9 p.m. both days.

Those who cannot attend the two special sessions may visit the assessor's office in the courthouse in San Rafael to discuss the assessments. They should come in before May 25 because the new assessment roll will go to the supervisors in July, said Broemmel.

There have been some reductions, but the majority of the changes are increases, the assessor reported. "This shows that for the most part, the demand for Sausalito properties continues to outstrip supply," Broemmel pointed out.

The assessor explained that "fair market value" changes from time to time because of increased demand for property, inflation, improvements on property and so on.

"To keep abreast of these changing conditions and thereby keep the distribution of the tax burden on a fair basis, it is necessary to periodically reappraise all of the property in the county," the assessor added. "In Marin, we are doing this on a continuing program, with approximately one-fourth of the county being revalued each year."

Sausalito School District just completed for use in the 1959-60 tax rolls. Next will be Reed, Mill Valley, Larkspur and Kentfield school districts for application on the 1960-61 tax rolls. Ross, San Anselmo, Fairfax and San Rafael school districts will be reappraised for the 1961-62 tax roll. Finally, Dixie, San Jose, Novato and rural school districts will be covered for 1962-63.

When that is done, reappraisal will start again in Sausalito, and the process will be repeated.

South Marin To Expand Sewer Lines

A $70,000 expansion program of the Sausalito-Marin City Sanitary district, which will quadruple the capacity of lines at the northern end of the district, was announced today by Loren L. Jay, chairman of the district board.

Directors of the district instructed engineer M. Carleton Yoder to prepare plans and specifications for the job, which will involve laying 3,500 feet of 16-inch line between Marin City and the south end of the Richardson Bay Bridge.

"The new line will parallel the district's original eight-inch line at the location," Jay said. "It will make it possible for us to provide better service to the Tamalpais Valley Sanitary District and the Richardson Bay Sanitary District, with whom we have contracts."

Jay said bids would be called sometime in the latter part of May, with expectation of starting construction late in June.

Dandy Dancer

DENVER, Colo. (AP) — Patrolman Darrel Behrendsen has to admit there's variety in the life of a policeman. One of his recent arrests was that of a 32-year-old man clad in a cellophane skirt, two leis and a pair of bright red pants doing a soft shoe hula dance in the middle of a Denver street on a Saturday afternoon.

San Rafael Orchestra Wins Honor

The 48-piece orchestra under direction of Irvin Wright, instrumental director and teacher for San Rafael city schools, competed in the elementary junior high instrumental section of the festival. The festival was sponsored by the California Music Educators Assn.

Davidson's concert or symphony-type orchestra competed with approximately 65 other orchestras from 12 counties in the festival's bay section, Principal Homer Hoyt said. "Our orchestras previously have won high honors, but Saturday marked the first time we have competed in several years."

New Horsemen's Group Forming

Horsemen of Nicasio and San Geronimo Valley will hold an organizational meeting at 7:30 o'clock tonight in Lagunitas School, announces Mrs. Johanna Stone of Lagunitas, temporary chairman.

The group held an overnight ride Friday, going to Samuel P. Taylor State Park for dinner. More than 45 persons participated in the dinner.

Calistoga Grapes Hard-Hit By Frost

NAPA (AP) — Weekend frost damage to grapes was severe in the Calistoga basin area of Napa County, growers said today.
